

FREIGHT WRECK
IN THE BOROUGH.Seven Cars Piled Up on Southwest Tracks Near Fayette Street.

NEGRO HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Was Unloading Coal When Car He Worked In Was Shunted Into Neighboring Yard—Passenger Train Held Up for Nearly Four Hours.

A spectacular freight wreck occurred on the Southwest branch near Fayette street about 6:30 last evening when a northbound shifting train split the switch leading to the old ice plant of the Young Crystal Ice & Storage Company and piled up seven cars. Jim Taylor, a negro, had a narrow escape from serious injury but escaped with a bruised back. No one else was hurt.

The train was going through the borough at a good clip. Upon crossing Pittsburg street both engineers opened their throttles wide. The train was making between 20 and 30 miles an hour when one of the cars midway in the train climbed the switch and the others behind it started towards the ice house. Before the engines could be stopped there was a picturesque pile of broken and battered freight cars that gave the wrecking crew a job a few hours later.

Taylor was unloading a car of coal on the ice house siding. Before he realized what had happened he was picking himself up in James O'Hara's yard, where he and the car and the coal were piled up in a coal house which had been used to store furniture. Taylor found part of a baby carriage on one arm, his feet rested against the back of a bed and the arm of a chair encircled his neck like a collar. Coal dust was over everything. He pulled himself together, shook off the embarrassment and hiked for his home in Meadow lane.

The evening southbound passenger train was unable to get through until 10:30. The passengers were sent to Uniontown and Fairlawn by trolley. It was 9:15 when the Youngwood wrecking crew arrived and once on the scene the track was quickly cleared. Hundreds of spectators gathered to watch the big crane pick up the heavy steel cars and lay them to one side of the track. The work was suspended long enough to let the passenger train through after the track had been cleared. The crane was pulled back then and the work of cleaning up the debris continued throughout the night. By this morning the only signs that were left of the mishap were the battered timbers of a demolished freight car, a deposit of crushed stone, slag and coal berries the track, and the demolished coal house on the O'Hara property. Fortunately the ice plant escaped without great damage, a hole torn through the corner of the building being the only mark it sustained.

Two big steel gondolas loaded with trucks and other debris were run in on another siding to be removed later. Foreman Edward Metzger, who has charge of this section, started his men at work early getting the track in shape. Two badly sprung rails near Fayette street were all the damage noticed to the roadbed. Section Foreman Metzger regards the stretch of track from the depot to Davidson as the worst he has to look after. During the 12 years he has been in charge here four wrecks, nearly all of them at about the same point, have occurred.

Delegates Named for Conservation

United Press Telegram
HARRISBURG, Sept. 22.—Announcement was made today by Governor Tener that he had appointed the following delegates to the national conservation congress in Kansas City September 25-27: Charles W. Stone, Warren; E. D. Warfield, Easton; Dr. Henry Decker, South Fayetteville; Miss Myra L. Cook, Fayetteville; Mrs. E. W. Muller, Carlisle; Prof. H. B. Butler, State College; Dr. E. E. Sparks, State College; Dr. Martin C. Brumbaugh, Philadelphia; Dr. S. Conklin, Harrisburg; S. E. Elliott, Reynoldsville; Col. Harry C. Trexler, Allentown; J. T. Rothrock, West Chester; Joseph Howard, Emporium; J. Harris McFarland, Harrisburg.

The Uniontown Natatorium, capital $10,000, was granted a charter by the State today. John F. Knott is president.

Tired of School; Skips.
Earl Russell, son of Captain E. S. Russell of the Baltimore & Ohio police force, has left home. He went to New York on Monday. It is said Earl wanted to quit high school but his parents objected.

Canada's Vote Was No Slap At Uncle Sam the New Premier Says.

United Press Telegram.
HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 22.—"The verdict of the people of Canada was in no wise dictated by any spirit of unfriendliness to the great neighboring republic," declared Premier-to-be Robert L. Borden, leader of the Conservatives in discussing the overwhelming defeat of the Liberal party and its reciprocity program today.

"No such spirit exists," he continued. "In rejecting reciprocity Canada has simply confirmed her adherence to the policy of national development that she has pursued for years. The government without authority from the people undertook to revoke that policy; but on submitting their action to the people, were defeated. It is my belief that friendly relations between Canada and the United States can best be maintained by each country reserving complete and entire control over its own tariff, and entering into no entangling alliances."

POLITICAL MATTER
SWAMPS POSTOFFICEOnly One Delivery Being Made Today in the Residential District.

SAVE TIME FOR SATURDAY

Letter Carriers Can Work Only 48 Hours Each Week and Postmaster
Kurtz Wants to Be Certain of Full Service for Last Day of the Week.

Machinery at the postoffice today is literally choked and clogged with political matter. Campaign literature descended on the office force yesterday and today like an avalanche and is taking herculean efforts to keep the service within a reasonable distance of the regular schedule. The political matter has been heavy all week but the last two days have seen an unusual amount of it deposited in the office.

In order to be certain that the carriers will have time for two deliveries tomorrow Postmaster Kurtz ordered the second delivery in the residential district curtailed today. The office being closed on Sunday, every effort is made to get all the mail out Saturday afternoon. If the carriers made their second delivery this afternoon the chances are that tomorrow's first time would have expired before the second delivery could be made.

Letter carriers are required only to work 18 hours each week. They are not permitted to work overtime. They may work more than eight hours on any one day, but their time for the entire week is not allowed to exceed 18 hours.

Campaign circulars are more than plentiful. They are pouring into the postoffice in the form of letters, circulars and newspapers. Practically every county candidate is sending out communications to the voters of his faith and the postoffice is doing most of the work.

Stole a Watch;
Landed in Jail

Charged with carrying concealed weapons and larceny Gus Wilson, colored, was given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Squire F. M. Buttermore of the West Side and was taken to Uniontown following the hearing by Constable R. A. Smith and committed to jail for the December term of court. Wilson was charged with stealing a gold watch from J. W. Barker, colored, of the West Side. Barker and Wilson were together on Wednesday night and during their conversation Wilson asked Barker for the time. Barker took his watch from his pocket and it was then that the watch was stolen. Attached to the watch was a small strap which Wilson cut to get the ticker.

The theft was reported by Barker to the police and yesterday Wilson was arrested in Connellsville by Chief of Police George Hetzel. A new handily was found on his person.

Barker went before Squire Buttermore and made the information and the warrant was turned over to Constable R. A. Smith. After taking the watch Wilson went to Schneider's meat market in the West Side and pawned it to James Schneider for $5. Wilson at first claimed that Barker had given him the watch. At the hearing he stated he was born in Nova Scotia and spent most of his life in Alabama.

Davidson Plays Tomorrow.
The Davidson team will play a game of baseball at Slick grounds tomorrow at 3 o'clock. The Blue Devils have beaten Masonstown, Point Marion and other crack teams in the southern end of the county.

Higgins Out of Hospital.
Ray Higgins who has been at the Cottage State hospital for the past three months with a broken leg, was discharged from the institution yesterday.

RELIGIOUS SURVEY
UP TO CHURCHES.Enthusiastic Audience Heard
E. H. Lockwood at the Y. M. C. A.

PASTORS FAVOR THE MOVEMENT

If Trustees of Various Denominations Agree, Connellsville Will Get in on Men and Religion Forward Movement this Winter.

Whether Connellsville shall get in on the Men and Religion Forward Movement, being promoted by the Pittsburg branch of the organization, depends upon the trustees of the various evangelical churches. E. H. Lockwood, assistant executive secretary of the Pittsburg branch, spoke last night at the Y. M. C. A. to an audience of more than 60 and convinced most of them that Connellsville should interest itself.

Practically all of the local pastors were present and expressed enthusiasm towards the movement. Because it was believed the trustees were not fully represented at the meeting last night no decisive action was taken at that time.

If Connellsville becomes a part of the movement the general program will be continued throughout the winter with possibly an eight day campaign by a team of trained religious workers working along evangelistic lines. A social and religious survey of Connellsville will be made if the plan carries.

Last Call for Dictionaries

Last call for the dictionaries! The Courier's offer of a fine dictionary for a nominal expense cost and six coupons is fast drawing to a close. The sales at the close of yesterday's business totaled 1,271 and the finish is in sight.

There remain just 30 of the $1 volumes and 32 of the $2 volumes. Those who desire to take advantage of the chance to get a volume of Webster's New Standard Dictionary for an expense bonus of 95 cents for the $1 volume or 45 cents for the $2 volume must get a move on. The books are going fast and no more will be ordered.

The sale of the dictionaries exceeded anticipations and even the sanguine circulation manager who believed the dictionary offer would "go" did not look for the demand that has marked the distribution. Thirteen hundred dictionaries distributed in six weeks is going some.

SETTLED CASE.

Peaceful Ending Comes Out of Assault and Battery Prosecution.
Mrs. Carmela Galzerano did not push the assault and battery and surety of the peace case she brought against Emilio Carroll before Justice of the Peace W. P. Clark. Before the time set for the hearing the defendant was allowed to pay the costs and the information was withdrawn.

The parties had from Elm Grove and live in a double house. P. Difano acted as interpreter for the informant and M. Donadio served in a similar capacity for the defendant.

Mrs. Mitchell Very Ill.
The condition of Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, who was taken suddenly ill of pneumonia poisoning early in the week at her home on West Apple street is not improved. She spent a very bad night last night and this morning there was no change in her condition. Mrs. Mitchell is the wife of Fire Chief Mitchell.

Hostess Assaulted.
William Cochran, hostess on the Lake Erie railroad at Dickerson Run, was assaulted while at his work Thursday morning. He was coating an engine when some one slipped up behind him and struck him over the head rendering him unconscious.

ARISTOCRATS AGOG
OVER WOMAN'S DEEDAllen Garland, Scion of Old Louisiana Family is Killed.

AN IRATE WIFE USES WEAPON

Claims She Was Insulted by the Youth When Alone in Her Home With Him—Family Feud May Be the Outcome of Scandal.

United Press Telegram.
OPELOUSE, La., Sept. 22.—Aristocratic St. Landry parish is shaken to its center today over the killing of 23 year old Allen Garland, cousin of Representative Dupre and a member of one of the best known families of the State by Mrs. J. P. McGee, wife of the division superintendent of the Frisco railroad here. Mrs. McGee is more than twice Garland's age and considered beautiful. She is in jail awaiting the action of the coroner. Her friends say that her course was justified and that she will be triumphantly vindicated.

Friends of the Garland and Dupre families declare that the dead youth held women in the highest respect and that the attempt to justify the killing by the statement that he insulted Mrs. McGee is not born out by the facts.

Since she telephoned to her husband and the sheriff that she killed young Garland, Mrs. McGee has refused to talk. To them she said: "I killed him and if every woman who is insulted by a man would do the same thing there would be more virtue and fewer scandals in this country. As any good woman would be sorry to take a human life, I regret the killing of this young man. I regret it in the sense he forced me to do it."

The McGee and Garland families live next door to each other. Mr. McGee is away from home a great deal. Mrs. McGee called on her grandmother of young Garland and asked for a spoon of thread. Young Garland took the spoon over to the McGee house and the shooting followed.

"Big Business"
Checks the Slump

United Press Telegram
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Alarmed over the raids on the stock market growing out of the rumors that the government planned to force the reorganization of the United States Steel Corporation, J. Pierpont Morgan and other financiers with international connections hurried to the rescue today and within the brief period of half an hour changed panic to optimism.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Steel common lost five points from last night's close during the first 15 minutes of trading today. The stock exchange was much excited and the entire stock list showed losses.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—It was reported yesterday on excellent authority that the matter of dissolving and reorganizing the United States Steel Corporation is receiving the earnest attention of the Department of Justice and the legal representatives of the so-called "million dollar trust."

Informal conferences of prominent steel officials were held during the day. Chairman E. I. Gary declined to discuss the status of affairs and Francis Lynde Stetson, the corporation's general counsel, neither would confirm nor deny the report that negotiations looking to a voluntary dissolution are in contemplation.

The work of disintegrating and reorganizing the largest industrial combination ever organized represents a task of Titanic proportions. Many of the subsidiaries have lost practically all semblance of their original selves. A large part of the $500,000,000 common stock originally represented little more than bonuses or water. It has been admitted by government investigators, however, that much of this inflated value has been replaced in recent years by money taken out of earnings. In fact, the report of the Department of Commerce and Labor has practically fixed upon a value of $50 for the common shares because of the millions put into new construction, betterment, depreciation, etc.

It is evident that trade conditions also are distinctly adverse. For the last three months such new business as the company has received has been at marked price concessions. This, of course, is equally true of the many independent companies, but the latter have had a distinct advantage in the fact that their wage schedules were generally lower than those of the big corporation.

Colored Lad Missing From Home Found Drowned at Mouth of Mountz Creek.

The body of Edward Henderson, the colored lad, who disappeared from his home on the Swaugertown road last Saturday was discovered floating in the river this morning near the mouth of Mountz creek by a tramp who happened to be passing by. The body was removed to Funeral Director J. E. Sims' establishment from which place the funeral took place this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment in

III Grove cemetery.
The boy was eight years old and was a son of Mrs. Caesar Henderson. Since he left home on last Saturday nothing had been heard regarding his strange disappearance and this morning several of his playmates who are reported to have been with him on last Saturday refuse to discuss the drowning. The supposition is that the boy had gone in swimming.

GATES AND COX
WIN REID SHOOT.Only Two Classes Contested for on Reidmore Range Yesterday.

WINNERS NEW CONTESTANTS

Private John Gates Was Formerly in Company C But Franklin Cox Is Just Beginning—Fifteen Marksmen
Fire at Targets Between Showers.

Only two classes were contested for in the Reid trophy shoot on the Reidmore range yesterday when 15 members of Company D fired at the targets between showers. Private John Gates of Fairchance won the gold medal for the ensuing year by making 137 out of a possible 160. There were no entries in the sharpshooter class for the silver medal, but S. Franklin Cox, musician, won the bronze trophy of the marksmen class by hitting 97 out of a possible 160 bullets.

Private Gates joined Company D after Company C of Uniontown was transferred to Somerset. Gates came from Fairchance and was regarded as one of the best marksmen in old Company C. He developed class yesterday and it is declared that the prize for marksmanship of the company lies between him and Private John Walters, another Company C recruit. Walters was unable to compete yesterday and a pretty contest went by the board.

Musicien S. Franklin Cox is one of the youngest members of the company and yesterday won his first participation in the Reid trophy contest. He won the bronze medal by making a good score for that class. The medals were donated by Colonel J. M. Reid. As yet no member of the company has won the medal three successive years, the requirement for permanent possession.

The company this month will have a figure of merit of 120, qualifying 11 experts and 56 marksmen.

Peaches From Washington State

E. S. Barnes, manager of the Mountain Water Supply Company this week received a crate of the finest peaches ever seen in this vicinity. They come from the orchard of W. M. Wilkins, formerly of Connellsville, who is located now at Wenatchee, the gateway to the land of perfect apples, in the state of Washington.

This part of Washington, the north central, is rated the greatest apple and peach country in the United States. The climate is just right for the fruit which grows large and the flavor is delicious. Through Mr. Barnes, the Courier received a number of the peaches and they are magnificent specimens.

Capt. Kid Dark
Meets Directors

Captain Kid Dark of the Coker baseball team came here from Vandergrift yesterday for a conference with the directors. He reported the outlook as encouraging and cannot see why the team will not be in the running for the pennant. He was in Connellsville but a short time, leaving at once immediately after talking things over with the team officials.

Manager M. A. Coffey stated this morning the management hoped to have arrangements concluded this week for a new ball but was unable to give out anything definite at this time.

Takes New Position.
Miss Jennie Leech has accepted a position as stenographer for the Dunbar Furnace Company. At present Miss Leech is employed in the West Penn offices during the absence of Miss Margaret Fagan, who is spending her vacation in Chicago. Miss Leech will assume her new duties as soon as the return of Miss Fagan.

FIRE HOUSE MATTER
AGAIN HELD OVER.Building Committee of Council Will Await Call of Chairman

TO HOLD ANOTHER SESSION

Committee Met Last Evening With General Manager A. M. Haines of the Construction Company—Equity Suit Blocks the Way.

The fire house matter was not settled last evening by the Building Committee of Town Council. Chairman S. E. Brant and his fellow members on the committee met with General Manager A. M. Haines of the Connellsville Construction Company and went over the situation. Mr. Haines stood pat on his decision not to start work until the present equity suit against the borough has been settled. The suit charges the borough has exceeded its 2 per cent limit of indebtedness in letting the contract for the building.

The Building Committee did not have sufficient information to go into the matter intelligently last night and it was decided to defer action until a more careful investigation can be made. The delay was agreeable to both the committee and Mr. Haines.

Those who attended the session last evening were Councilman S. E. Brant, T. J. Brennan, C. M. Stoner, E. J. Hetzel and S. B. Decker of the Building Committee, President James B. Millard and Councilman J. F. Kooser, Clerk Bixler and Mr. Haines.

Misfortunes Many;
Jimmy Ward Quits

United Press Telegram.
RATHBONE, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Utterly dismayed by the unprecedented hard luck that has beset every stage of his attempts to fly from New York to the Pacific Coast, Aviator Jimmy Ward this afternoon announced his retirement from the race for $50,000. His machine is practically a complete wreck, following his tumble this morning.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 22.—Calvin Rodgers, the aviator, lost his course on a flight which began at Susquehanna this morning and over this city shortly after 12 o'clock. It is thought he became confused and in an effort to recover his course, flew some 60 miles out of the way.

Mandamus Again Postponed.
The mandamus proceedings that were to be brought at Uniontown today by Capt. John L. Gans in the Connellsville election case were again held up. It was announced at Uniontown this afternoon. The action is scheduled now for tomorrow. The Commissioners have agreed to hold the Connellsville ballots until tomorrow.

Gae Killed Young Man.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Wandering why her youthful lodger did not get out of bed, Mrs. Ellen Patterson, landlady of a Tennessee avenue hotel, broke open the door today and found him suffocated by gas. The boy hired the room yesterday but gave no name. He wore a Lebanon, Pa., High School pin.

Loses His Grip.
Dudley Reis, a Pittsburg traveling man, reported the loss of a grip valued at $20 at the Baltimore & Ohio depot today. An old suit case was left behind by the one who took that belonging to Reis.

Two Fever Cases.
Grace Stickle, aged 9, daughter of Frank Stickle of the West Side, and C. C. Buttner's 9 year old son, also of the West Side, are reported to have typhoid fever. The houses have been placarded.

A. O. H. Meeting.
The regular monthly meeting of the A. O. H. Auxiliary will be held next Thursday evening in the basement of the Immaculate Conception church.

FLYWHEEL BURSTS
AT THE BREWERY.Flying Bits of Metal Played Havoc in the Engine Room

OF THE PITTSBURG PLANT

Engineer Thomas McGuire Had Narrow Escape—Steam and Ammonia Pipes Are Smashed and Hole Is Torn Through the Ceiling.

Damage to the extent of $5,000 was done at the Connellsville plant of the Pittsburg Brewing Company yesterday afternoon when a fly wheel on the 50 kilowatt dynamo burst and scattered chunks of flying metal in all directions. The men in the engine room at the time had a miraculous escape from serious injury.

The spring governor on the flywheel got out of order and caused the engine to run away. The flywheel was making about 2,000 revolutions per minute when it gave away. It shattered and sent pieces of steel in all directions. One chunk out of the flywheel was sailing through the ceiling of the engine room and tore a hole through the floor above. Other heavy portions played havoc with the steam and ammonia pipes. One of the ammonia tanks, located near the dynamo, was shattered.

Engineer Thomas H. McGuire had a narrow escape. He used good judgment in not attempting to reach the throttle of the engine which ran the dynamo. Had he done so he would have received the full force of the bursting flywheel.

Instead of that McGuire ran out of the engine room and hurried to the boilers, where he shut off the steam lines feeding the engines. He had just left the engine room on this mission when the wheel gave way. The room was filled with noxious fumes of ammonia. Others in the engine room at the time got out quickly.

It will be several days before the damage can be repaired. It is not believed that the dynamo has been damaged although its base was cracked. The cylinder head of the engine running it blew out as a result of the excessive speed. Under normal conditions the engine makes only about 50 revolutions per minute.

The plant will be out of commission until the ammonia and steam lines can be repaired and the engine and dynamo fixed up. It will be three or four days, at the earliest, before work can be resumed.

ATTEND BEALL FUNERAL.

Many From Uniontown Go to Morgantown Thursday.

After traveling almost continuously since Monday, when they left Steelton, Nova Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beall and Mrs. Charles J. Coll and daughter, Kathryn, passed through Connellsville yesterday morning to attend the funeral services of L. D. Beall at 2:30 Thursday afternoon.

Judge R. E. Umbel, who was in the east to attend several Masonic events, met Mr. and Mrs. Beall in New York Wednesday and learned with sorrow of their son's death. Judge Umbel had been at Santaqua Springs attending the supreme council of Grand Degree Masons. Although his mission in the east was not completed he returned home at once to attend the Beall funeral after which he will return to Philadelphia to attend the 125th anniversary of the independence of the grand lodge of Masons of Pennsylvania Sunday and Monday at a cornerstone laying at Lancaster Tuesday. Judge Umbel went by automobile to Morganstown being accompanied by Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen, Judge Nathaniel Ewing, A. C. Hagan and R. F. Hopwood.

Among others who went to Morganstown for the funeral yesterday were L. E. Beall and daughter, Priscilla, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ghrist, Guy Gilmore, Edith Crossland, Daniel Sturgeon, George B. Jetties, R. W. Playford, L. H. Frasher, R. W. Boyd, A. D. Williams, R. P. Kennedy, R. W. Dawson and Rev. F. W. Beckman, who assisted in the services. The 10:50 B. & O. train, on which most of the party went, was about an hour late.

A beautiful floral emblem was sent by the Fayette County Bar Association. The pallbearers were Morganstown friends and the interment was in that town.

His Finger Poisoned.
Eddie Duggan of the West Side had his index finger of his right hand opened this morning at the Cottage State hospital. A few days ago a small pimple appeared on the finger and blood poison developed. The arm was badly swollen.

Fair Weather.
Fair today and Saturday is the noon weather bulletin.

Robert W. Duncan is Called by Death

Robert W. Duncan, aged 73 years, a Civil War veteran and a former well known resident of Connelville, died yesterday morning at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Porter in Youngwood, Pa., for a number of years, and two years ago last spring he suffered a stroke of paralysis. Later he suffered the second and third strokes, which with other complications resulted in his death. Over a month ago accompanied by Mrs. Duncan, he went to Youngwood for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Porter and also with the expectation of visiting their Connelville friends and relatives.

The body will be shipped to Connelville this afternoon on 2:17 P. M. R. train by Funeral Director Ray B. Barger of Youngwood. On his arrival here it will be removed by Funeral Director J. E. Sims to the Glen residence on Main street, West Side, from which place services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Enlow of Youngwood and Rev. R. C. Wolf, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate. Interment in Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Duncan was born at Edinburgh Castle, Scotland, and when a small child he came to this country with his parents, who settled in Pittsburgh. Forty-one years ago last May he was married in Connelville to Miss Anna H. Giles, a daughter of the late Thomas and Rebecca Giles of the West Side. At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted with a Pittsburgh regiment. He was a charter member of the William F. Kurtz Post No. 10, G. A. R., and joined the Connelville Lodge of Masons. When he was but a boy he united with the local Methodist Episcopal church. Practically all his life he followed the occupation of a painter and while in Portsmouth, Va., he did fine painting in the United States navy yards. After moving to Portsmouth he transferred his membership from the local lodge of Masons to the Naval Lodge at Portsmouth.

About 21 years ago accompanied by Mrs. Duncan he left Connelville for Los Angeles, Cal., and after spending some time in California and other Western states they went to Norfolk. In addition to his widow he is survived by the following brothers, Jack Duncan of Cincinnati, O., Alex. and Samuel Duncan of Pittsburgh. One sister, Mrs. Clara Graham of Cincinnati, O., also survives. He is a brother-in-law of Irving Glass, Mrs. W. O. Witman and Mrs. Matilda Eccles of the West Side.

Mrs. Lucinda Means is Dead at Moyer

Mrs. Lucinda Frances Means, wife of Rev. James H. Means, for forty years pastor of the Church of God in Bullskin township, died yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at her late home near Moyer. Rev. Means, who is in his 81st year, is also in feeble health. On the 11th of last May Mrs. Means suffered a stroke and when falling sustained a fracture of the right hip. The fracture never knitted properly and the accident hastened her death. She was a patient at the Cottage State hospital for ten weeks. She had been confined to her bed for two weeks before her death.

Mrs. Means was 75 years old and was a daughter of the late John Morris of Rich Hill, Bullskin township. She was born in Redstone township, June 5, 1836. In 1862 she was married to Rev. James H. Means and practically all her married life was spent in Bullskin township. At the age of 15 years she united with the Church of God and up until her late illness she always took an active part in the work of the church. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following step children: W. C. Means, Poplar Grove; Mary Means of Rich Hill; Mrs. Ellen Dunham, Connelville; Mrs. Margaret McLaughlin of West Newton; Mrs. Catherine Crossland of Moyer and Miss Susan Means of Connelville. One sister, Mrs. Euphemia Boyd of Cool Springs, and a brother, David Morris, of near Uniontown, also survive.

Funeral from her late home Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock and from the Mt. Olive United Brethren church at 2 o'clock. Rev. D. A. Stevens and Rev. W. B. Elliott will officiate. Interment in Mt. Olive Cemetery.

Will Leave for Rockies.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bruller and son, Roy, of Dawson, will leave today for a three weeks trip to the State of Montana and expect to visit Yellowstone National Park before returning home. Mrs. Bruller has a brother who owns a large ranch in Montana, where they expect to make their visit and while there will go on a week's hunting trip in the Rocky mountains.

Fall Opening Announcement.
Miss Minnie B. Storey announces the opening of her new line of domestic and imported Fall and Winter Millinery for the season of 1911-1912 at her millinery parlors, 117 West Apple street, Saturday, September 23. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to call and inspect the newest creations in ladies' millinery and children's trimmed hats.

Thursday Afternoon Card Club.
Mrs. Joseph T. Johnston will entertain the Thursday Afternoon Card Club Thursday afternoon, Sept. 28, at her home on East Main street.

Flood in Naples; Many are Killed

United Press Telegram.
NAPLES, Italy, Sept. 22.—Sixty dead bodies have been recovered and it is feared the total casualty list when completed will be much larger following a heavy and violent storm and flood in Naples and vicinity early today.

Scores are missing, and reports when received from outlying districts will make the list of casualties extremely heavy. Wires are down and reports are fragmentary.

Lake Steamers Collide.
PORT HURON, Mich., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The steamer Henry Phillips and the steamer Joliet collided in St. Clair river opposite this city early today in a heavy fog. The Joliet immediately sank and part of her crew was rescued by Joliet's tug. Twenty-three members of the crew were safely rescued.

Consider Strike Matters.
TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The section men's strike situation on the Lackawanna railroad will be considered at a conference in New York Monday afternoon between Commissioner Lewis T. Bryant of the Department of Labor and President W. H. Truesdale of the Lackawanna.

Strike in Spain.
BARCELONA, Spain, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—So serious have the strike disturbances at Forcell become that Spanish warships at Cadiz and other ports have been ordered there today to hold the troops and civil guards to restore order.

Read The Daily Courier

SOCIETY.

Ten Cent Social.
The ladies of the Christian church are holding a ten cent social this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Blackstone in Connelville township. Licensed to Wed.

Daniel Stanley Smith and Ernestine Helen Powell of Connelville, were granted a license to wed in Cumberland yesterday.

Entertained Class.
Class No. 10 of the First Baptist Sunday school was entertained last evening by Miss Nettie Langford at her home in South Connelville. Business of a routine nature was transacted and a musical and literary program rendered. The meeting was well attended.

Dinner For Club.
Members of the West Side Fishing Club were royally entertained last evening by M. J. Rohland at the West Side Hotel. Mr. Rohland is a member of the club and also a recent benedict and the banquet was given in honor of his marriage. The affair lasted from 5:30 until after 11 o'clock. The large dining room of the hotel was the scene of the feast, which consisted of chicken with all the trimmings. "Cooper Patterson was townmaster of the occasion and several short addresses were also given by other members of the club. The supper was served in fine style and there was full and plenty of everything.

Covers were laid for J. J. Driscoll, A. W. Hart, G. K. Kelly, B. K. Milne, H. O. Marlow, G. E. Hart, Charles Kays, C. H. Baldry, J. A. Crowley, Cooper Patterson, J. R. Morrow, Kell Long, H. W. Kelly, H. M. Smurr, William Rohland and the host. Bert Chaffant was registered as being absent.

Bridge Party.
A pretty social event of yesterday was a large bridge party at which Mrs. J. Clyde Whitely was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. The affair was marked by dainty appointments and was the largest social functions of the early fall. Seven tables were called into play and a well arranged luncheon was served about 5 o'clock. The out of town guests were Miss Dorothy Richardson of Williamsburg; Mrs. Sherman Welbo of Pittsburgh; Mrs. W. C. Hood of Birmingham, Ala.; Misses Anna and Josephine McCullough, and Mrs. D. B. Altman of Scotland.

Birthday Dinner.
In honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband, Mrs. W. L. Wright was hostess at a well appointed birthday dinner last evening at 8:30 o'clock at her home in the South Windsor apartments, South Pittsburgh street. The affair was so cleverly arranged by the hostess that it was a complete surprise to Mr. Wright, who claimed that he had forgotten it was the anniversary of his birthday. There was the conventional birthday cake with its dainty colored candles significant of the age of the honor guest. Covers were laid for 14. Cards followed the dinner and several very pleasant hours were spent at five hundred.

Hostess at Bridge.
Miss Mary Dick was hostess at an informal bridge party yesterday afternoon at her home on South Pittsburgh street. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. G. W. Wells, Mrs. J. Donald Porter and Mrs. Harry L. Mitchell. Luncheon was served at the close of the game.

Planned Work For Year.
A committee meeting of the Third Department of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church met last evening at the home of Miss Sara McDuffett in the West Side and planned work for the ensuing year.

Fruit Shower.
Mrs. C. W. Simpson was tendered

Fifty Years Ago Today. Sept. 22.

Bones supposed to have been those of negroes executed for participating in alleged plot of 1741 to murder the whites and take possession of New York city were unearthed by men excavating for the New York county courthouse.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.
Discovery of Inigo and promising gold producing districts in the Transvaal, Tasmania and Queensland was reported. First crop of English grown tobacco was gathered in Kent. Three severe earthquake shocks in South Carolina and Georgia.

a surprise fruit shower last evening at her home on Cottage avenue by the employees of E. Dunn's store. The evening was very pleasantly spent at various amusements. Several piano selections were rendered by Miss Simpson and her sisters, the Misses Smith of Wheeling, W. Va. Dainty refreshments were served.

Entertained Friends.
Misses Gertrude and Marie Opperman delightfully entertained about 13 of their friends last evening at their home on Francis avenue. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards and other games and at a late hour a dainty luncheon was served. The out of town guests were Cleveland Murray of Steubenville, O., and Harold Harens of Wisconsin.

H. S. O. Class Meeting.
The H. S. O. Class of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of William Rogers, East Main street, last night. The following officers were elected for a term of four months: President, Harry K. Buttermore; Vice President, Lloyd Buttermore; Secretary, Charles Loomis; Treasurer, Nell K. Martin; Attorney, Joe Buttermore; Chorister, Rebecca Myers. A musical program followed the election and a dainty lunch was served.

A Bag Social.
The King's Daughters of the Trinity Lutheran church will hold a bag social next Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. R. Ploot on Race street. The meeting will convene at 7:30 o'clock.

Family Reunion.
A reunion and picnic of the Antrim, Campbell and Gray families will be held tomorrow at Gray's Grove near Fairbairn. A number of members of the families will go from Connelville, among them Calob Campbell and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wagoner, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Piersol and Mrs. Florence McDonald.

Restored to Health

MRS. JAMES CRAVEN

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

STANDARD OF PURITY AND EXCELLENCE SINCE 1860

If every man and woman in the United States would only appreciate what this great family medicine does toward building up the system, driving out the disease germs by strengthening the digestive organs and quickening the circulation so as to prevent a cold or other form of congestion from becoming deep rooted, ninety per cent. of the illness would be avoided. When people get sick they blame different causes, but if they would only stop and think the chief cause is the system is allowed to run down; the blood becomes thin, the digestive organs are not strong enough to do their work properly, the tissues become weakened, the kidneys are unable to carry off the waste matter. The result is pains, aches, and all kinds of troubles. Just give your system a chance; build it up by taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as directed; it will build new tissue, help the stomach digest the food, strengthen the heart action, enrich the blood and invigorate the body, brain and nerves.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only whiskey that was taxed by the Government as a medicine during the Spanish-American war. Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY by druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a valuable illustrated medical booklet on request. The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Groah-Conway.
Arthur Groah and Miss Percy Conway, both of Connelville were married last evening by Squire P. M. Buttermore at the Buttermore residence on Main street, West Side. The bridegroom was 18 years old and the bride 16 years.

Have you tried our classified ads?

PERSONAL

Mrs. Edward Schreckengast of Francis avenue, and two sons are home

The body building and nourishing qualities of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey restored a very sick woman to the best of health. It will do the same for you if you will give it a chance.

She recently wrote: "I am a regular user of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and I have derived much benefit from its nourishing qualities. It is the greatest tonic and stimulant I know of for weak systems. I was very sick some time ago, but owing to this elixir of life, I am enjoying splendid health at present. I should have written sooner and thanked you for the good your whiskey has done and is doing for me. It is the real medicine of the American people." Mrs. James Craven, Waltham, Mass.

W. N. LECHE

106 W. MAIN STREET, CONNELLSVILLE.

A Few Necessities for the Home at Quick Moving Prices

Unbleached Sheetting
We are offering this week Unbleached Sheetting at attractive prices. 9-1 at 20c, 23c, 25c and at 33c; one at that is a winner 29c

And a 35c Unbleached Sheetting at 31c, also exceptional value as are all of these.

WHITE INDIA LINON
Special 12 1/2c quality, quick moving price 10c

House Waist Special
House Waists in grey dingo, not selling at 50c

Also a Black Embroidered Satin Waist, $1.25 value; quick moving price 90c

Aviation Caps
The Craze of the Season Same as Last Season. We have them all styles and prices—50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50

New Cotton Blankets
These are brand new Blankets grey with pink and blue borders. This is a splendid value at $1.25; our quick moving price $1.00

Here is another extra large size Cotton Blanket much heavier than the above one, but not as fine a quality, $1.25 value, quick moving $1.15

Beautiful Dress Trimming
We have never shown a more attractive line of dress accessories at this season of the year.

All Over Lace Yoking 75c to $2.50 the Yard

We are showing an extensive line of all the wanted dress trimming at 10c, 15c, 25c up to $2.75 the yard.

W. N. LECHE 106 WEST MAIN STREET, CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

WEBSTER'S

NEW STANDARD (ILLUSTRATED) DICTIONARY COUPON

FRIDAY, SEPT. 22, 1911.

SIX COUPONS OF CONSECUTIVE DATES CONSTITUTE A SET

Cut out the above coupon, with five others of consecutive dates, and present them at this office, with the expense bonus amount herein set opposite any style of Dictionary selected (which covers the item of the cost of packing, express from the factory, checking, clerk hire and other necessary EXPENSE (Name), and receive your choice of these three books:

The $4.00 (Like illustration in advertisement elsewhere in this issue) WEBSTER'S is bound in full Limp Leather, flexible, stamped in gold on back and sides, printed on Bible paper, with red edges. New Standard and corners rounded; beautiful, strong, durable. Besides the general contents as described elsewhere there are maps, three-color plates, numerous subjects by monotype, 16 pages of valuable charts in two colors, and the late United States Census. Present at this office six consecutive Dictionary coupons and the 98c

The $3.00 It is exactly the same as the $4.00 book, except that it is bound in cloth. New Standard binding—flexible, stamped in gold on back and sides, printed on Bible paper, with red edges. Illustrated with square corners. Consecutive Coupons and the 81c

The $2.00 Is in plain cloth binding, stamped in gold on back and sides, printed on Bible paper, with red edges. Illustrated with square corners. Consecutive Coupons and the 48c

Any Book by Mail, 25c Extra for Postage.

Workman Bros. PLUMBERS.

Plumbing, Tinning and Heating. Hot Water, Hot Air Heat. ALL KINDS OF JOBBING. Bell Phone 517. OFFICE 183 EAST MAIN ST.

R. V. RENDINE BARBER

Headquarters for Shavers' Supplies. ST. JAMES HOTEL.

$ Foundations $ for Fortunes $

Are right here in the advertising columns of this paper. If what you're selling has merit, ADVERTISE IT. An ad. will sell it for you.

INDIVIDUALITY

The successful man strives to maintain his individuality, to have things different from someone else. In short, a truly successful business man, whether a farmer, or a merchant, is an individual man—a leader. We are leaders, in the grocery business. We have what you want when you want it at the right prices.

WE WILL SAVE YOU MONEY.

When You Want a Nice Piece of Beef, Pork, Veal or Mutton or a Dressed Chicken Get It at Our FRESH MEAT COUNTER.

50 lb. sack White Satin Flour$1.60	1 doz. Quart Mason Jars47c
Best Sugar Cured Hams, lb.18c	1 dozen Quart Tin Cans32c
9 lbs Laundry Soap25c	Paraffine Wax, 1 lb. cake10c
Fresh Potatoes, per peck35c	Sealing Wax, 2 sticks5c
Sweet Potatoes, per 1/2 peck20c	3 5c Boxes Blueing10c
2 cans Fancy Egg Plums25c	3 5c-boxes Matches10c
7 Cans Oil Sardines25c	10 doz. Clothes Pins10c
6 Cns Peerless or Pet Milk25c	3 5c-boxes Stove Polish10c
3 Bottles Parker House Catsup25c	10 lb. Pail Lake Herring55c
3 boxes Indian Corn Starch20c	1 box Cosmo Buttermilk Soap20c
3 10c-boxes Coconut20c	3 large cans Fancy Tomatoes25c
1/2 lb. box Hershey's Cocoa18c	3 cans Sugar Corn25c
1/2 lb. cake Chocolate18c	3 boxes Jell-O25c
1 lb. extra Choice Rio Coffee22c	1 lb. Cream Crackers15c
1 lb. Fancy Mocha and Java Coffee28c	4 lbs. Choice Head Rice25c
4 lb. box Dutch Cleanser25c	Quart Bottle Grape Juice35c
1 lb. box New Raspberries35c	3 large cans Hominy25c

LARGE BASKET GRAPES18c

J. R. DAVIDSON COMPANY

109 W. MAIN STREET, CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

News From Nearby Towns.

DUNBAR.

DUNBAR, Sept. 22.—J. M. McCreary was at Smithfield on Wednesday visiting his sister, who is seriously ill. He was accompanied by Mr. James L. Juncos. Mrs. James L. Juncos was the guest of friends in Uniontown on Thursday.

Mrs. Birdie Kelly and daughter, Miss Birdie, were the guests of friends in Connelville.

Mrs. Florence Kuebler of Mauch Chunk, Pa., who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary W. W. 4 ft. for Brownsville, where she will be the guest of her brother, Z. L. Jeffries for a few days.

Mrs. David Williams was shopping in Connelville.

Mrs. C. E. Reed and little daughter, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed, of Uniontown for the past month, returned home on Thursday.

Miss Anna (Cibola) was the guest of friends in Connelville.

John Curry, Jr. of Connelville, was here looking after his father's interests in the Connelville Hotel.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson was the guest of friends in Connelville.

Miss Maude Eicher of this place, has accepted a position with a millinery firm in Connelville.

Michael Plazek, special office for the Dunbar Furnace Company, was a business caller in Uniontown.

Henry Welke of Connelville, was here on Thursday calling on friends.

Miss Lulu Martin was the guest of friends in Uniontown.

Mrs. W. R. Ross Kamp, who has been seriously ill, was removed to the Mercy hospital in Uniontown where she will undergo an operation.

Mrs. A. A. Wishart and son, Tompkins, who are here visiting friends, spent Wednesday's night at the White House on Sunday.

Harry McElhenny was the guest of friends in Uniontown.

Mrs. J. A. Gutter and grandson, John Bryte, of Connelville, were here on Thursday the guests of friends.

Clarence Lockwood and sister, Miss Anna, were the guests of friends at the White House on Sunday.

Miss Della McFarland was the guest of friends in Uniontown.

Miss Kathryn Kerwin was visiting friends in Connelville.

Walter Cotton of Accident, Md., is here for a few days settling up the estate of his father, the late Justice of the Peace W. H. Cotton.

Mrs. Thomas Morrison was in Pittsburgh on Wednesday visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Meyer, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital.

Mrs. J. H. Hark of Altoona, is here the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds of Dunbar township.

One of the most pleasant events and one of the largest moments spent by Rev. Minard for some time was the reception given him by his congregation, the First Methodist church, on Wednesday evening. Word was sent to Rev. Minard at his home at this place that he was wanted and he left for the church and oh what greeted him, a packed church and as he entered the church the burst of enthusiasm was deafening and after regaining himself, he spoke several words of praise and thanks to his congregation of about 150. He was warmly welcomed by all as there was much of good things for all the empty stomachs. Rev. Minard is known all over the county as the Village Blacksmith. He is a man of broad and respected by all who have learned to know him. Rev. Minard always is willing to take the time to talk to the small and the great and he is a man of broad and respected by all who have learned to know him. Rev. Minard always is willing to take the time to talk to the small and the great and he is a man of broad and respected by all who have learned to know him.

CONFLUENCE.

CONFLUENCE, Sept. 22.—Mrs. H. P. Mayers has returned from a shopping trip to Connelville.

Pat Burnworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Burnworth of this place, lies at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Trembley in Connelville with a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Harvey Connor of Chambersburg, Md., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mollie Hummel at present.

Quite a number went to Windber today to attend the Old Fellows annual celebration.

Mrs. H. C. Hammond of Knepper, Pa., was here yesterday on her way to Watson, Pa., where she will visit her parents.

Miss Ethel Vanhook has returned to her home in Uniontown after visiting friends here for a few days.

Lincoln Yeagley, a B. & O. fireman at Adams, spent several days here with his parents.

Louis Vogt of Uniontown, was here yesterday on his way to Markleysburg on business.

Mrs. J. A. Gray went to Friendsville, Md., where she will visit her friends.

Miss Maggie Nicklow is the guest of friends near Uniontown this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers and baby have returned to their home in Pennsylvania, Pa., after spending a pleasant two weeks' vacation with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rogers at Connelville.

The many friends of Miss Ida M. Donald, who returned a couple of weeks ago from her hospital in Pittsburgh, will be glad to know she is improving.

Miss Mary Paves of Sellersburg, Md., is employed by the Black's millinery store.

Mon J. W. Embley of Somerset, was a recent business caller here.

M. J. Hamilton of Markleysburg was here yesterday on his way down the road on business.

L. L. Mountain returned from Connelville yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Mountain, who had been in the hospital there for several weeks. We are glad to see Mrs. Mountain is improving.

W. H. Stoddard, the Somerset contractor, is here putting a slate roof on the residence of Miss Hilleman, West Hill.

Chas. A. Polio, the Berlin cigar manufacturer is here calling on patrons.

A. R. Plankman of Johnson's Chapel was a business visitor here yesterday.

Joe R. Harrow of Rockwood, was in town yesterday transacting business.

Mrs. Hamilton Augustine of Addison, entertained a number of her friends at dinner Wednesday. The out of town members were Miss Ida P. Bird, Miss A. L. Bird and daughter, Miss Perry, Connelville.

Miss Eunice Sedlow of Somerset returned to Mt. Pleasant, where she is attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sabath, of Uniontown, formerly of Sellersburg, visited Mrs. Ida P. Bird, Tuesday. They will visit in the West for some time before returning to Kansas.

MEYERSDALE.

MEYERSDALE, Sept. 21.—James Smith, who spent the past two years last evening to spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Emma Welker returned last evening on train No. 12 from Pittsburgh, where she spent several days as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mary McKeen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hough, returned missionaries from India, were visiting friends here yesterday and today. Sunday and Monday evenings next they will speak in the Church of the Brethren. They will return to India in December, having spent one year in this country.

Harry Daubert of Baltimore, Md., is here to spend a week or ten days with relatives and friends.

William Leckly of New Brighton, a former resident of this place, is here to spend some time with relatives and friends.

Wm. B. Grof, one of the local letter carriers, who left last week to spend his annual vacation, was taken ill in Philadelphia and is now at the Mercy hospital reports are to the effect that he is getting along nicely.

Wm. B. Grof, a former resident of this place, was transacting business and calling on friends here yesterday and today.

Hughson and Mrs. J. P. Reich are attending the sessions of the National Funeral Directors' Association at Atlantic City this week.

A large banner bearing the following legend was thrown to the breeze at Republican headquarters on Centre street: "Meyersdale Republican Club." J. A. Berkey for Judge. All Republicans Welcome.

Mr. Geo. H. Collins and Miss Ethel Collins are visiting their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Collins at Connelville this week.

John Dab of Seattle, Wash., after an absence of about four years, returned here on Tuesday to visit for a limited time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dab of Summit street.

J. W. Childers, who recently completed the construction work on a large steel bridge across the Allegheny river, has taken charge as superintendent at the large viaduct being erected near Salisbury Junction by the McChesney Construction company of Pittsburgh for the Western Maryland Railroad.

J. L. Treaster and Robert H. Walker were visiting in Sellersburg the forepart of this week.

Senator J. W. Embley of Somerset, was in town this morning.

Madame Kennedy, Mrs. D. D. Pfahler, O. G. Gott and Thos. W. Curley took an auto spin to Sellersburg yesterday afternoon to call on friends.

Mrs. J. C. Hostetler visited in Cumberland yesterday.

Mrs. Bruce Lickly yesterday accompanied her son, Mrs. Helen Chambersburg, where she will enroll as a student in Wilson College.

W. T. Hubert of the Meyersdale Coal Company, returned yesterday in the transportation of business.

Mr. K. C. Hostetler is visiting friends in Johnstown this week.

OHIOPILE.

OHIOPILE, Sept. 22.—Miss Lucy Costa was a Pittsburgh visitor.

Glenn Chuback is the guest of Charles Gladky.

Helen Jones is spending several days here at her home.

Fred Linderman is the guest of her aunt at South Connelville.

Mrs. George Mann and daughter, Nellie, of McKeenport, spent Thursday with old acquaintances here.

Miss Lizzie Binger of Berlin, is the guest of her sister, Helen Linderman, of town.

Frank Bailey is spending several days with relatives at Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Jeff Shipley has returned to her home at South Connelville, after visiting relatives at this place.

Tona Vita Brings Back Good Health

The country is filled with half sick, run down, listless people afflicted with nervous debility.

Are you one of them? Do you feel tired all the time, with no ambition or energy? Do you get up in the morning after a poor night's sleep feeling as worn out as when you went to bed? Do you catch cold easily? Is your circulation poor? Have you an irregular appetite? In your stomach out of order most of the time? Are you nervous and depressed in spirits?

These are the symptoms of nervous debility. Tona Vita the wonderful new tonic is bringing back health to thousands who are afflicted with this trouble. If you are struggling along in this miserable run down condition, trying to do your work when you feel like going to bed, you can get a new lease on life by a trial of this great tonic that is making such a record all over the world.

Men and women in all stations of life are being built up and rejuvenated by Tona Vita. The tonic acts so quickly that it astonishes those who try it for the first time. From the first dose the tired, despondent feeling begins to disappear, sound sleep and good digestion return in a few days. Then health and renewed energy bring back happiness and ambition.

Don't drag about half dead any longer. Get this medicine at once. You will be thankful the longest day you live. If the tonic does not do you more good than anything you have ever tried you can have the purchase price returned by our regular agent.

Lee's Rubarb Laxative, the assistant remedy, should be taken in connection with Tona Vita when there is chronic constipation. Lee's Rubarb Laxative is a pure, harmless and effective family laxative containing the fine medicinal qualities of rubarb, is pleasant to take. A. A. Clarke has the agency for Tona Vita and Lee's Rubarb Laxative in Connelville, Pa.

MT. PLEASANT.

MT. PLEASANT, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Nancy Swartz, widow of the late Paul Swartz, died at her West Main street home of infirmities of old age yesterday morning. She is 91 years old and is survived by three sons and one daughter, John, J. Wesley of this place and Chas. A. of St. Cloud Florida and Miss Emma, who has stayed at the Swartz home.

The handsome job of freezing has been completed at the Re-Union Presbyterian church and the church will be re-opened on October 1, when Rev. James S. Moffat, D. D., President of the Washington and Jefferson College will preach both morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Shupe and grandchildren, Miss Sara Hood and Oliver Collins, returned yesterday from their auto tour. Mr. Shupe attended the Millers' Convention at Atlantic City while he was away.

A special train came in over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad yesterday at 3:30 P. M. bringing the Baltimore Ministerial Troupe to the Lyric Theatre, where they played in a packed house. The train was composed of the engine, baggage and day coach.

Mrs. Ruth Bremer of Greensburg was the guest of friends here.

The Civic Club will meet at the Municipal building next Monday at 8 o'clock. M. R. Rimmer says two ladies will be asked to come out at the meeting for the nomination of School Director and just what the outcome of the affair will be is being anxiously awaited for among the people.

Despite the very rainy evening a large number of people attended the opening of Mrs. Lillian Richter at her millinery parlors.

W. A. Hichman was a caller in Connelville yesterday.

Cap. Nicholas No. 7, Army of the Philippines met at the Rader Inn last evening and elected and installed officers. The following officers were elected: James Porter, Commander, Chas. L. Clark, Vice Commander, William L. Sigler, Paymaster, J. G. Thompson, Adjutant, William West, Officer of the Guard, John McVey, Quartermaster.

The ladies of the Hospital Aid Society will meet in the ladies' parlors at the hospital Tuesday next at 3 o'clock P. M.

Have You Lost Anything? If you have, then advertise for it in our classified column. It is a word.

Keep Your Skin Comfortable and Your Complexion Clear During the Hot Weather.

If your skin is kept comfortable, you will be comfortable yourself. If you or one of your children are being made miserable by hives, prickly heat, rashes or eczema or if you are worried by pimples, black heads, sun burn or skin trouble of any kind, we want you to try ZEMO and ZEMO Soap.

We are so anxious to have you use ZEMO and ZEMO Soap that we offer you a generous sample of each and our 25-page booklet "How to Preserve the Skin" in you will send five 2c stamps to E. W. Ross Medicine Company, 3032 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. to pay postage or get them today from the Graham & Co. Drug Store who endorse and recommend ZEMO and ZEMO Soap for all skin troubles whether it be on infant or grown person.

We know you will be pleased with results from the use of ZEMO and ZEMO Soap. Graham & Co., Connelville; D. C. Eason, Dunbar.

BALTIMORE & OHIO

EXCURSIONS TO THE

Pittsburg Exposition

$1.75

THURSDAYS,

Sept. 7, 14, 21, and 28, Oct. 5, 12 and 19.

Tickets good going on all regular trains on dates of sale. Good returning Three Days including date of sale.

SATURDAYS,

Sept. 16 and 30, October 14 and 21.

$1.75

Tickets good going and returning on regular trains on date of sale only.

Special attractions.

Meyersdale Fair

$2.25

September 26, 27, 28 and 29.

Tickets good returning until September 29th inclusive.

For full information call on H. L. Douglass, Ticket Agent.

Political Announcements.

FOR REGISTER OF WILLS AND CLERK OF THE ORPHANS' COURT,

Charles O. Schroyer

OF DAWSON, PA.

Subject to decision of Republican Primaries, Saturday, Sep. 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER,

John S. Langley,

OF MENALLEN TOWNSHIP.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Sept. 30, 1911.

John L. Gans

Is a Candidate for the Republican nomination for City Comptroller until it is finally decided that an election will NOT be held.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR AND HOUSE OF EMPLOYMENT

Sam'l Higinbotham

OF REDSTONE TOWNSHIP.

Subject to decision of Republican Primary Saturday, September 30, 1911.

FOR CORONER,

Dr. H. J. Bell

OF DAWSON, PA.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Saturday, September 30, 1911.

FOR RECORDER OF DEEDS

H. R. Titterington

OF UNIONTOWN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Sept. 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER,

William S. Craft

OF LUZERNE TOWNSHIP.

Capable, Experienced, Deserving. Primary September 30, 1911.

FOR CONTROLLER,

Logan Rush

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Saturday, September 30, 1911.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR AND HOUSE OF EMPLOYMENT,

Matthew B. Walker

OF NICHOLSON TOWNSHIP.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Sept. 30, 1911.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR AND HOUSE OF EMPLOYMENT

James J. Barnhart

OF DUNBAR TOWNSHIP.

Republican Primary, Saturday, September 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER,

Charles H. Nutt

OF JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primary Saturday, Sept. 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER,

Moses H. Clark

OF UNIONTOWN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Sept. 30, 1911.

FOR SHERIFF OF FAYETTE COUNTY,

Thomas L. Howard

OF UNIONTOWN, PA.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Sept. 30, 1911.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR AND HOUSE OF EMPLOYMENT,

Wm. P. Jackson

OF OHIOPILE BOROUGH.

Late of Company F, 107 Regt Penn'a. Vet. Vol.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Saturday, September 30, 1911.

FOR REGISTER OF WILLS,

Geo. W. Campbell

OF CONNELLSVILLE.

If you are for a Clean Cut Business Administration—Campbell is Your Man.

Republican primary, September 30.

HELP ME TO WIN.

FOR REGISTER OF WILLS,

Geo. W. Campbell

OF CONNELLSVILLE.

If you are for a Clean Cut Business Administration—Campbell is Your Man.

Republican primary, September 30.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

S. Ray Shelby

Republican Primary Sept 30, 1911.

FOR PROTHONOTARY OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

J. Fred Kurtz

OF CONNELLSVILLE.

A Republican of a family which has staunchly fought for Republican candidates for over 85 years. Vote for Kurtz and a clean, honest, capable administration of the Prothonotary's office.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR,

James B. Hogg

OF CONNELLSVILLE.

Subject to the decision at the Republican Primaries, September 30, 1911.

FOR SHERIFF,

M. A. Kiefer

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, September 30, 1911.

Your vote and influence respectfully solicited.

FOR PROTHONOTARY,

Wm. McClelland

OF UNIONTOWN.

Republican Primaries, September 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY CONTROLLER OF FAYETTE COUNTY

Harry Kisinger

OF BROWNSVILLE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, September 30th, 1911. Your vote and influence respectfully solicited.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER,

Freeman P. Eicher

OF SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, Saturday, September 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER,

Jas. W. Abraham

OF SMITHFIELD.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries, September 30, 1911.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER,

Geo. Fuehrer

OF DUNBAR TOWNSHIP.

Forty-third anniversary as a voter. Subject to the decision in primaries Saturday, Sept. 30, 1911. Your assistance respectfully solicited.

FOR COMPTROLLER OF THE CITY OF CONNELLSVILLE,

Harry Cook

Subject to the decision of Republican primaries, September 30, 1911.

Now Is the Time to Avoid Delay.

Have your fall clothing cleaned or dyed by the Star Dye Works,

Connelville, Md.

"WE DO IT BEST."

H. J. BOSLET, Agt.,

122 S. Pittsburgh St.

We call for and deliver orders.

Turn Over a New Leaf

By subscribing for THIS PAPER

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries Sept. 30, 1911.

I will appreciate your vote and influence in my behalf. I served my country in the Civil War and have lived in Connelville for the past 11 years and have done my part to make Connelville what it is today.

The Daily Courier.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice, Connelville, Pa.

THE COURIER COMPANY, Publishers.

H. P. SNYDER,
President and Managing Editor,
J. H. STIMMELL,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Office, The Courier Building, 127 1/2 N.
Main Street, Connelville, Pa.

TELEPHONE RINGS.
CITY EDITORS AND REPORTERS
Bell, 12, Two Rings; Tri-State, 55, Two Rings.
BUSINESS OFFICE, JOB AND CIR-CULATION DEPARTMENTS, Bell 12.
One Ring; Tri-State 55, One Ring.
H. P. SNYDER, Editor and Manager,
Bell 14.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEP. 22, 1911.

THE DEFEAT AND ROUT OF RECIPROCITY.

The defeat of the Laurier government in Canada is reported to be due in a large measure to overconfidence.
Too many politicians too often forget that there is nothing certain about an election until the votes are counted.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier is undoubtedly a great statesman. He had been at the head of the government for fifteen years. He had no thought of defeat.
His administration had been so successful that he had a right to think that it would have the approval of the people, and there was a general disposition to think it would. The result of the election cannot, therefore, be accounted for save on the theory that the landslide common to politics in this country caught Laurier and the liberals when they were not looking.
A curious feature of the election was the defeat of Robert L. Horden, the "conservative" leader. But this will not keep him out of Parliament. Under the English system, a candidate does not have to reside in the district from which he is elected, and some Conservative from a safe district will resign and enable Horden to be elected.

It is also a question whether our statesmen were not overconfident or lacking in caution when they did not insist upon an expression from Canada before making so much ado about the matter here. However, it is evident that the people of this country were willing to live and trade with their Canadian neighbors on more friendly and liberal terms. The rejection of this proffer did not apparently come through any personal prejudice against our people. Perhaps the most potent influence in its defeat were the remarks made by Speaker Champ Clark declaring that the United States would annex Canada. The Speaker denied being serious, but his words were effectively used in the Canadian campaign. And the Speaker was for Reciprocidity, too. That was once when he spoke too much.

The defeat of the Laurier government means the defeat of all Recip-rocidity measures save one. The free entry into this country of printed paper and wood pulp remains written into our statutes. It will probably not be distributed. It is a tribute to national intelligence.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD INJUNCTION.

We note with surprise and regret that the President of the Chamber of Commerce rushes madly into print to denounce The Courier for expressing the opinion that the borough authorities ought to withdraw the injunction against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and permit that corporation to construct double tracks through the town when their business demanded such facilities.

As in the case of the Western Maryland, the President of the Chamber of Commerce holds to the view that the railroads should pay liberally for the privilege of coming to us and through us.

The Chamber of Commerce was organized for the purpose of securing the location in Connelville of new industries. It has been fairly successful. For its good work in this behalf we have nothing but words of praise.
In the accomplishment of this work it has sought the friendship of corporations. The official organ of the Chamber of Commerce accuses us of consulting with, being friendly to and even defending the corporations. It is true. We have. But every officer and every member of the Chamber of Commerce has been guilty of doing the same thing. Criminals all of us.
Given The News itself is quite as guilty as any of us.

But we take it that we have all been trying to do what we can for the good of Connelville. If we sometimes differ as to the methods and measures to be employed the fact should not necessarily convict any of us of the crime of treason to the interests of Connelville.

The Courier does not believe the hold-up policy to be wise when railroads desire to come into the town or to enlarge their facilities therein. The greater the railroad facilities of Con-nelville the greater inducements can be offered to industries seeking locations. Increased railroad facilities are a direct and an indirect benefit to the town. They should not be unduly hampered. They should be fairly treated. They should get the Glad Hand, not the Mallet List.

We question the assumption of the President of the Chamber of Commerce to speak for the people of Con-nelville. He has tried to do so on other occasions, but the echo was too faint to be heard. We can excuse him for his rooted antipathy to the railroads and the water company. He has been in court with them, probably with good cause, but certainly with poor effect, and the memory of the fact seems to linger with him and in some degree bias his otherwise excellent judgment.

The observations of The Echo are hardly worthy of serious consideration, save perhaps the concluding paragraph in which it is desired to know,

"What Pennsylvania Railroad Company official called at The Courier office for a friendly chat just previous to the penning of the editorial which appeared in The Courier?" The official's name was F. P. Truesdale. He is the coke traffic agent of the company in the Connelville region. The Weekly Courier is the recognized organ of the Connelville coke trade.
Mr. Truesdale frequently visits The Courier office and our representatives frequently visit him. There was no significance in his call "just before the editorial was penned," and as a matter of fact the subject was not touched upon during his visit. This insinuation is unworthy of even an official organ.

The Courier is not always with the railroads. As its readers know it is now engaged with others in fighting all the Connelville coke region railroads for their gross discriminations against the Connelville coke region, and we think the President of the Chamber of Commerce should sympathize with such a fight.
But as we demand justice from the railroads so we would see it done unto them. We may differ as to what that measure of justice should be, but there is no reason in this case to im-pute anybody's motives. The Courier has positive opinions as to what is best for the community and some other excellent citizens and one esteemed contemporary seems to have opinions quite as positive.

In the meantime the matter is entirely within the sound discretion of the borough authorities.

SOME ANCIENT RAILROAD HISTORY.

Concerning the ancient history of the Pennsylvania railroad's entry into Connelville, we recall that it was proposed to pass around us and go through the West Side, then New Haven with a toll bridge intervening.
Connelville citizens welcomed its change of plans and the Town Council willingly gave it right of way, though not all of them. The company bought property through a large portion of its route, asking only the privilege of crossing the streets. It is true that the railroad was permitted to close Arch street, and we think this was a mistake; but the Town Council was pre-emptive, though in those days usually a B. & O. Council.

The closing of Arch street was a blow to the B. & O. influence, since it was a pet project of their representatives in Council to widen and grade Arch street, then merely an alley, and divert all the town traffic to the B. & O. station via Arch street, and allow the B. & O. to occupy the greater part of Water street with their tracks.

The advent of the Pennsylvania railroad and the closing of Arch street put an end to this ambitious and not disinterested project, but it is worthy of remark that the B. & O. finally succeeded in getting enough room for four tracks on Water street.

These Canucks are cantankerous.
After sweetening and suffering all summer in the desperate work of packing the Reciprocidity measure, while the Canadian statesmen were waiting for the festive bus on the clear water and in the cool breezes of the lakes, the members of the American Congress are confronted with the announcement that all their labors have been in vain for the reason that the Canadians have voted against the Reciprocidity measure.

The new School Code makes many changes, but it is decided that it doesn't eliminate vaccination.

Lightning is striking rather prominently. Lightning cannot be dodged. This fact is fully appreciated by the primary candidates, and what's more they don't want to dodge it.

Two railroad presidents stopped at Connelville the other day. They didn't stay long. It is true; but they didn't leave everything stopped at Connelville when passing through.

J. Mervin's goat isn't the only one in Connelville. There are others who don't butt in, but in and sometimes get butted out.

Football is on deck.

Steel stocks are being battered down in Wall street, but bona fide holders have intrinsic value. The water has been squeezed out of them and they pay regular dividends.

The summer excursion season is getting to the chestnut stage.

The Connelville Postoffice Building will be disturbed by the National Pike improvement unless it gets a hustle on.

Judge Grosscup of Chicago will not resign at present. He won't quit under fire. His name isn't Keneshaw Mountain, but he has lightning blood in him just the same.

It is now announced that Borough Solicitor Shetty will resign under certain circumstances. If Keneshaw Mountain resigns, the Democratic politicians of Connelville will become discouraged.

The Troubles of a Rockwater Editor.
The editor has been about "knocked out" this week with a boil on his nose about the size and hue of a ripe Cleveland tomato. He's spent most of the time bathing our proboscis in hot water and wondering whether historic Job was a Democrat or Republican.
We might have been the chief attraction at the Jefferson Fair, but we didn't go for fear of frightening the horses off the race track.

It Was No Intended.
Uniontown Herald.

The Connelville Courier states that the editor of The Herald is always for its friends and against his enemies. We doubt the taste of projecting personalities too far into our editorial utterances, but at the same time we desire to state that this tribute of The Courier is one of the sincerest ever paid the editor of The Herald.

CLASSIFIED ADS.
ONE CENT A WORD.

Wanted.

WANTED—BOARDERS. 111 EAST
PEACH STREET. 22sept11d

WANTED—DRESSMAKING. 238 1/2
EAST MAIN STREET. 22sept11d

WANTED—TWO DINING ROOM
girls. Apply HOTEL HAAS. 22sept11d

WANTED—BUY YOUR WINTER coat at GRIMM'S LIVING. West Side.
Price right. 18sept11d

WANTED—WATCHMAKER AT once. Apply 214 N. PITTSBURG STREET, Connelville. 22sept11d

WANTED—(GET NEXT TO ALL that's new and beautiful in fall wear. A thousand styles ready for your inspection. DAVE COHEN, Tailor. 18sept11d

WANTED—EXPERIENCED MINE
foreman for small mine near Irwin.
Also experienced coke master at the same plant. Address HIXLER COAL & COKE CO., Pittsburgh, Pa. 22sept11d

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS.
248 WITTER AVENUE. 22sept11d

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM.
Inquire 204 RACE STREET. 22sept11d

FOR RENT—THREE FURNISHED rooms. 1119 WEST MAIN STREET.
22sept11d

FOR RENT—FIVE ROOM HOUSE.
Inquire 117 BALDWIN AVENUE.
22sept11d

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS
with bath. 420 SOUTH ARCH STREET. 18sept11d

FOR RENT—ONE FOUR ROOM flat, corner Main and Sixth streets, West Side. Inquire FLORENCE
SMITH. 18sept11d

FOR RENT—MODERN SIX ROOMED house, 810 Sycamore street, Wills
J. S. DETWILER, Irwin, Pa. 18sept11d

FOR RENT—ONE DWELLING house, containing 12 rooms, suitable for boarding or rooming house. Modern improvements. Inquire of JOHN D.
FISHER. 22sept11d

For Sale.

FOR SALE—BUY THE HAYEN GAS Iron, guaranteed. 12 N. STATE, the Plumber. 12sept11d

FOR SALE—UPRIGHT PIANO
Good as new, at good bargain. Inquire 329 WEST 7TH STREET, Connelville, Pa.
22sept11d

FOR SALE—READING STANDARD
motor cycle 6 H. P. double cylinder.
Perfect condition. Address "X" care
Courier. 20sept11d

FOR SALE—A $100 KLEBER mahogany piano. Good as new. Will sell for $150 cash. Address BOX 34, Courier Office. 20sept11d

FOR SALE—BUTCHER SHOP doing good business. Worth twelve hundred. Will sell for $375. Inquire of C. W. M., No. 8 South Broadway, Scottsdale, Pa. 15sept11d

FOR SALE—ONE GUINNESS HULL, 15 months old, also a lot of Yorkhires pig, 7 months old. Also for breeding.
The choice breakfast bacon stock.
Inquire of JOHN D. FISHER. 22sept11d

FOR SALE—PARLOR SET AND fine high grade player piano practically new. Player piano alone worth $700.
Will sell cheap, breaking up housekeeping. Address VICTOR HANSEN, General Delivery, City. 22sept11d

FOR SALE—CHEAPEST AND MOST convenient building lots for workmen and others. City water, natural gas, electric light, trolley service. Prices range from $50 to $300, but mostly range around $200. Inquire while they last at the office of THE CONNELLS-VILLE EXTENSION COMPANY, The Courier Building, Connelville, Pa.

Lost.

LOST—A RETURN TRIP TICKET for Chicago to Pullman, Nevada on Southern Pacific. Reward if returned to Courier Office. 22sept11d

Executor's Notice.

ESTATE OF AGNES COLLINS DEceased. Letters testamentary on the estate of Agnes Collins, late of Dunbar township, Fayette county, Pa., deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons interested to said estate to make immediate payment and to those having claims against the same to present them, properly authenticated for settlement, at W. H. HALE, Executor, P. O.
address Vanderhill, Pa. 18sept11d

Plumbing.

PLUMBING, TINNING, SLATING, hot water, steam and hot air heating.
Repair work of all kinds promptly attended to. Estimates cheerfully furnished on all contracts. STAINB-LEIGH COMPANY, Office 322 S.
Pittsburg street, Connelville, Pa.

Farmers'

PICNIC

Killarney Park

Saturday, Sept. 23

The Mountains Are Fine Now.

Last Picnic of the Season.

Everybody who reads magazines buys newspapers, but everybody who reads newspapers doesn't buy magazines.

Catch the Drift?

Here's the medium to reach the people of this community.

This Store
Will Be Closed
All Day Saturday on Account of Holiday.
Open Monday.

Sedersky & Rapport

Not Sold Out Yet
$2.85 Sale to Last Till Monday

Hundreds of Pairs

Went out of our store last Saturday and Monday. We never had such a rush. Our $2.85 sale always was popular but this time exceeds any other. The sale will continue as advertised heretofore till Monday evening when all is off.

Zeigler Bros. and Edwin C. Burt
$4.00 Shoes now$2.85

Johnson Bros. $3.00 at$2.35

See Our Windows for Display.

C. W. Downs & Co.

Our Women's Shoes

Carry with them an air of distinctiveness that gives the wearer a feeling of keen satisfaction.

The New Fall Styles await your approval. They embody all the catchy style elements.

There are Tans, Patents, Gun Metal, Plain Kid, Cravenette, Suede and Buckskin.

Armstrongs $4.00 and $5.00.

Dorothy Dodd $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

All have a style atmosphere, not seen in other makes.

Hooper & Long

Only a few of the big values we quote from our lines of

New Fall Goods

Time now to begin your Fall and Winter buying. Study over your needs and visit this old home store at your earliest convenience.
Our buyers are back from the Eastern market where they succeeded in picking up several odd lots at only a small fraction of their real value. We are going to share the profits with you to such an extent that it will pay you well to visit this store. Besides these and other bargains we will be offering you will have a chance to inspect the season's new styles and compare prices. Read carefully the following items and remember that with the exception of the suits, these lots cannot be duplicated.

Fall Suits $25.00 Special Value

Handsome tailored styles made of the season's most popular suitings—rough mixtures, heavy serges, chevots and mannish cloths in black and white colorings. While it has been our custom to offer an unusual $25 suit value we think we are showing a bigger bargain at this price this season than of any season in the past; style lines are perfect, lined with best satin lining and slightly trimmed with buttons and braids. They compare well with the $35 suits shown by other stores. Special to you at.....$25.00

For the Children

Carriage Robes—Full size heavy reversible blankets in blue and white and pink and white with borders, in bunny, puppy, butterfly and auto designs. A regular $5c value, while they last...50c

Dresses—For children up to two years of age. Made of soft fine raincoat with ruffle or lace collars and cuffs. They come in long and short styles. The making alone is worth the price.....25c

New Fall Suitings

Strictly all wool and 40 and 44 inches wide. These are mostly the new plaids in dark colors suitable for suits and dresses and are especially good for school wear. They are medium weight and good 75c and 85c values. We offer them to you at only.....60c

New Kimona Crepes

A big showing of these in new designs and colorings in plain and fancies with or without borders. These are the well known "Serpentine" Crepe the most popular kimona goods on the market. We suggest that you supply your needs in this line while the best patterns are being shown. Price.....18c

Laces and Embroideries

Laces—One lot of these in insertings and edgings in white and ecru up to 2 inches wide. Bargain price.....5c

Laces—in white and ecru up to 4 inches wide, pretty patterns. Bargain price...10c

Embroideries—One lot of these in beadings, insertings and edgings up to 4 inches wide.....5c

Embroideries, beadings, insertings, edgings and hands up to 15 inches wide.
Bargain price.....10c

Table Linens and Napkins

Linens—A superior 64 inch heavy unbleached damask, every thread linen and shown in flowers and fancy figures with pre-ttyp border effects. This is a splendid value and well worth 85c. A big table linen special at.....50c

Napkins—One large lot of these bought at a figure that will allow us to offer them to you at a special price inducement. They come in Greenan, Shamrock Flour-de-lis and other designs, 20x20 inch size hemmed ready for use...12c

E. DUNN

129-131-133 North Pittsburg Street.

A Suit That Suits

A Right Suit will be of more importance to most Men this Fall than an uncertain Suit with a so called "bargain" price attached.

We are now showing the season's correct styles moderately and pleasingly priced.

The new, shapely, form fitting models, the perfect shoulders, the new lapels, the higher cut vests and straighter Trousers—all these are the new English ideas that will be very popular the coming seasons.
Handsome new fabrics in a variety of Grays, Browns and Olive mixtures.

Suits $12, $15, $18 to $30

The elegance that comes through perfect and skillful Tailoring in these Suits will appeal to you at once.

Hats for the Coming Season Are Now Ready.

Stiff or soft as you like! Among the many striking Hat shapes this Fall there is one that will look better than any other on you, and we're right sure that we have it!

We show correct Hats for Men of all ages. Conservative or extreme shapes.

Stiff Hats$1.50, $2, $3 to $5

Soft Hats$1, $2, $3 to $5

You will find the best styles and the best Hats and the best values here to choose from. Will you not step in just for a look at the new styles.

E. W. Horner

Title & Trust Bldg., Connelville, Pa.

OWENSDALE.

Special to The Courier.
OWENSDALE, Sept. 22.—If the owners of some of the men, strange clothes that come at night go to their back yards some morning and find their "night alarms" with their feet pointed towards the ceiling clouds and the passageway of a rifle ball through their forms and their carcasses useful only to fertilize an ash dump, they needn't lose their tempers and declare it is someone taking their spite out on the dog. When the cold gray moonlight is shining over the peacefully slumbering populace a blood-curdling racket brings half of the population to their doors, each armed with a pocket edition of Dr. Quilling's masterpiece and a complete dutchering outfit ready to pour out their life's blood to down an ingurgitation, but when they find out that several regiments of savage curs are training his pet portable dairy (cow) to run a Marathon race, he sits down on the door sill and renders an oration that would make Mark Anthony bent it to the woods, using all the latest sterilized and improved up-to-date adjectives in slang of the day, which if he had been living in Mark's time, would make him a Colonus of the time. These contemptible brutes have wrought havoc among the owners of live stock as well as making the night hideous.

Mrs. Gustave Ottenberg was shopping at Scottdale last evening. Andy Lianko, one of the foreigners who was seriously burned in the recent explosion at the Rist slope, is able to be about, although suffering excruciating pain from his burns. The quick action of his fellow workers saved his life. Mrs. Mary Grace, a nurse in the Memorial Hospital at Morgantown, W. Va., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Grace at Morgan Station. Henry Ottenberg was attending to matters of business at Scottdale last evening. Mrs. James Grace, of Morgan Station, is among those on the sick list. Nevin Edwards of Conneltsville, was a business visitor here yesterday.

The Fall Opening at Foltz's Millinery

The millinery parlors of Mrs. J. B. Foltz on East Main street was thronged with feminine shoppers yesterday afternoon and last evening the attraction being the annual fall showing of millinery. Music was furnished by Kiefer's orchestra and carriages were given as souvenirs. Some very handsome hats, in all the latest shapes and colors were shown. The small hat prevailed. Many smart tailored hats were displayed. A noticeable feature of millinery this year is the use of wide bands of heavy lace in trimming. Flowers are also extensively used.

Rosenbaum Company

GIVE 3/4" GREEN TRADING STAMPS—ASK FOR THEM—

PITTSBURG, PA.

Fall Opening

This week, Sept. 18 to 23, the store is in gala attire, because of our annual Fall Opening. All departments participate, but special attention is given to

Millinery

Doing the "third largest millinery business in the country" enables us to display at this opening the very latest and most becoming ideas in Paris and New York Pattern Hats.

Take advantage of the regular weekly excursions to the Exposition, and visit the two most interesting events in Pittsburgh—the Exposition at the Point, and the Exposition of Fall Styles at our store.

We give "S. & H." Stamps with all cash purchases—double stamps on Tuesdays and Fridays from 3 till 11 A. M.

We deliver, when desired, all purchases free within 30 miles of Pittsburgh. Also, we prepay freight or express charges on all purchases of $5 or over to within 500 miles of Pittsburgh.

BASEBALL.

RESULTS YESTERDAY.

National League.
Pittsburgh 1, Boston 3.
Cincinnati 1, Brooklyn 3.
Brooklyn 4, Cincinnati 5.
Philadelphia 4, Chicago 0.
Chicago 0, Philadelphia 2.
New York 2, St. Louis 2.
St. Louis 5, New York 7.

Fifteen innings.
American League.
Philadelphia 7, St. Louis 4.
Detroit 2, Boston 1.
Cleveland 5, New York 1.
Washington-Chicago—Rain.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

National League.
New York	17	419
Chicago	16	394
Pittsburgh	15	377
Philadelphia	14	362
St. Louis	13	352
Cincinnati	12	341
Brooklyn	11	331
Boston	10	322
American League.
Philadelphia	17	412
Detroit	16	407
Cleveland	15	399
New York	14	391
Boston	13	382
Chicago	12	373
Washington	11	364
St. Louis	10	355

Classified Advertisements in this paper bring results. Try them. Only one cent a word.

GOLD DUST

Works without wages

All you have to do, is to aid Gold Dust—it does the real hard, muscle part of the task itself—you merely assist it.

It matters not what cleaning work you have before you, Gold Dust is the one great aid. It does more work, more kinds of work, and better, quicker work than any other cleanser.

Gold Dust was the original cleanser—all the others are mere imitations. Gold Dust has always stood at the head, and its sales are yearly increasing.

Cut your household labors to a minimum by the use of Gold Dust—the greatest cleansing agent the world has ever produced.

Use Gold Dust for washing clothes and dishes, scrubbing floors, cleaning wood-work, oilcloth, silverware and tinware, polishing brasswork, cleaning bathroom pipes, refrigerators, etc., softening hard water and making the finest soft soap.

Gold Dust is sold in 5c size and Large packages. The large package means greater economy.

Made by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago. Makers of Fairy Soap (the oval cake)

"Let the Gold Dust Twins do your work"

The First Expressions of Delight Are Already Coming In

From Wemblers of Our 300 Club Who Have Commenced to Use Their Ranges.

"I never did such perfect baking."
"I've never known of a range to bake with such little fuel."
"My range will soon pay for itself in the fuel it is saving."
These are the kind of messages we are receiving.

BETTER JOIN OUR 300 CLUB TODAY

and secure one of these splendid ranges. $2.50 is all you pay to secure delivery; then ONE DOLLAR A WEEK FOR JUST A FEW WEEKS until you have paid into the club the cost of your range on the basis of a purchase of 300 ranges.

On Heating Stoves Too They All Have to Take a Back Seat

Our club purchase of ranges made for each one of our great stores aggregated such a tremendous order that we secured price concessions on the price of heating stoves that permit us to give the greatest values ever known.

Round Oak Heaters

SIMILAR TO CUT AS LOW AS

$4.95

Magnificent Base Burners

$35.00 SIZES NOW ONLY

$29.75

Another Big Bargain

And More Friends for Featherman's.

$12.50 never bought as much quality, as much massive elegance or as much style in furniture as this very handsome Early English Library Table. Our stock of these tables wouldn't last five minutes if it were possible to portray this table as it really is. The style is a reproduction of the Early English period and the finish is the same rich, dark finish in vogue in the early days of English history. Featherman's prices are a continual source of wonder amongst discriminating buyers. This Library Table is a greater value than even we have ever been able to offer you for

$12.50

Don't Miss Our Fall Rug and Carpet Display. Our Prices Settle That Rug Question.

Your Promise to Pay is Good as Gold and You'll Do Better at FEATHERMAN FURNITURE CO.

CLEAN UP YOUR STOMACH.

And Gas, Sourness, Dizziness, Head-aches and Bad Dreams Will Go.

If you really want a clean, sweet, pure stomach, free from gas, sourness and distress, go to A. A. Clarke today and get a 50-cent box of MI-ONA Stomach Tablets.

Take these little tablets according to directions, and at the end of a week you are not brighter, stronger and more vigorous, just say so and get your money back.

For heaviness after eating, constipation, heartburn and that distressing feeling, MI-ONA Stomach Tablets will give relief in five minutes.

Large box of MI-ONA STOMACH TABLETS, 50 cents at A. A. Clarke and druggists everywhere.

Where It Was.
"Johnny, run get the family Bible; I want to show it to the parson."
"Oh, now, I can't move all those trunks and boxes!"—Baltimore Sun.

S. A. Coughanour, General Insurance Notary Public. 401 First National Bank Bldg.

Soisson Theatre. Tuesday, Sept. 26

The Big Beauty Show

The Dolly Dimple Girls

BURLESQUE CO.

20—Merry Maidens—20

6 Funny Comedians

See Golden and Collins

See "The Girl in the Window."

See Pretty May Burns

You Know Them All

Prices, 25, 35, 50, 75c

Seats on sale at Theatre Box Office. Both Phones.

This Store Will Be Closed

All Day Saturday, Account of Holiday. Open on Monday as Usual.

KOBACKER'S,

The Woman's Store.

THE JOB DEPARTMENT OF THE COURIER DOES ALL KINDS OF COMMERCIAL PRINTING.

CONTRACT LET FOR GAS HEAT FIXTURES.

School Board Will Put it Up to Gas Company to Give Fuel.

WILL FIGHT IT OUT IN COURT

If the Company Declines to Live Up to Ordinance by Which it Occupies Streets of Connellsville—Finance Committee Digs for Payroll.

With Solicitor R. S. Matthews declaring that in his opinion the ordinance by which the Fayette County Gas Company occupies the streets and thoroughfares of Connellsville provides for free gas for all school and public buildings, the School Board last evening decided to have gas fixtures installed in furnaces now using coal. The gas company will be asked to live up to the terms of its franchise or, if it declines, the board is willing to pay for the connections.

The contract for installing the gas fixtures was awarded F. T. Evans. He was by far the lowest bidder of the three submitting estimates. His bid for installing the fixtures in the Third Ward, South Side and Greenwood buildings was $700.00. Cypher & Son asked $119.39 and the Stahl Plumbing Company $31.70.

On account of the fact that legal proceedings might drag through the winter before the gas is finally turned on, the fixtures will be installed in such a manner that coal can be used if gas is not available.

Solicitor Matthews cited a decision by Judge Swearingin in Bellevue where the court required the gas company to furnish free gas to churches, the action being under an ordinance somewhat similar to the one here.

It was pointed out that both Uniontown and Scottsdale, which formerly enjoyed free gas, are now paying for it in the schools. Uniontown pays 10 cents per thousand cubic feet and Scottsdale 12 1/2 cents. These conditions were the outcome of the fight against thirty cent gas. Both towns are paying 10 cents for home consumption and are no longer getting the gas free for public purposes. The action of the School Board, some members think, will largely determine whether corporations have any sense of appreciation. Connellsville took the increase without a kick and is now asking only what it is entitled to under the ordinance.

The gas fixture contract was let quickly and something is scheduled to happen in the near future if the gas company fails to supply free fuel.

The Finance Committee reported the treasury too scant to meet the payroll this month. Just now $1,500 will be needed by September 29. The Treasurer was directed to request Tax Collector Norton to advance $2,500 and Tax Collector C. M. Miller to advance $1,000 by September 29, but if they cannot do so, the President and Secretary were authorized to execute a district note not to exceed $1,500. It is expected the remittances of the tax collectors on October 10 will more than make out the desired amount.

The board ratified the selections of F. C. Miner for principal of the South Side school and Miss Jean Armstrong as a teacher in High School. Miner gets $90 per month and Miss Arm strong $50.

Harry Decker was granted permission to grade the Greenwood school grounds in return for the dirt which he desires, providing the work is done under the direction of the Property Committee. The purchase of 72 books for the commercial department and 61 volumes for the elementary German class was authorized by a roll call vote. The board is adopting them as text books. The Property Committee will supply Principal Colbaugh of High School with a cupboard for his mechanical drawing outfit.

FOREIGN BUSINESS

As Easy to Transact as Any Other at the Right Place.

In the properly equipped Foreign Department of the modern bank lies just as easy to transact Foreign Business as it is to buy a pair of shoes. The First National Bank of Connellsville has such a department—ready to serve you promptly and efficiently in any foreign matter. In the first place, there are clerks to wait on you, speaking all languages, which simplifies the transaction of business for everybody. If you wish to travel abroad, you are provided with steamship passages and your cabin or berth is reserved on any line you prefer, your passport procured and a Letter of Credit or Travelers' Checks furnished. Money Orders are issued on all parts of the world. The bank is also direct agent for a number of Personally Conducted Tours to Europe and in this country, offering a wide choice of delightful travel, at very moderate expense. If you have foreign business to transact, by all means go to The First National, 129 West Main Street.

Patronize those who advertise.

CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILDREN NEED GENTLE, THOROUGH CASCARETS.

Most of the ills of childhood are caused by a sour, disordered stomach, sluggish liver and constipated bowels. They catch cold easily become cross, listless, irritable, feverish, restless, tongue coated, don't eat or sleep well and need a gentle, thorough, physic—but don't try to force a nauseating dose of oil into the little one's already sick stomach—it is cruel, needless and old-fashioned.

Any child will gladly take Cascarets which act gently—never gripe or produce the slightest uneasiness—though cleanses the little one's system, sweetens the stomach and puts the liver and bowels in a pure, healthy condition.

Full directions for children and grown-ups in each package. Mothers can rest easy after giving this gentle, thorough laxative which costs only 10 cents a box.

DICKERSON RUN.

DICKERSON RUN, Sept. 22.—Mrs. E. J. House of Dawson, was calling on friends here yesterday. Hamilton Page was a Dawson business caller yesterday. Paulmaster Middle Hornbeck was a Connellsville business caller yesterday. Mrs. William Barry has returned to her home at Mt. Pleasant after a few days' visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartwick. Miss Emma Smith was calling on Connellsville friends yesterday. Stewart Shreck of Harmons, is spending a few days here visiting his brother, Fred Shreck. Walter McCune was a business caller at Pittsburgh yesterday. George Clark of Lehighville, Democratic candidate for Constable, was a business caller here yesterday. Mrs. Mary McCune is spending a few days at Homestead visiting friends. Mrs. Lizzie Myers was the guest of friends at Connellsville yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunt were shopping in Connellsville yesterday.

VANDERBILT.

VANDERBILT, Sept. 22.—William Paul was a Dawson business caller yesterday. R. R. Shelby of Uniontown, was a business caller here yesterday. Chester Johnson was a business caller at Dawson yesterday. Norman List of Liberty, was calling on friends here yesterday. William McDowell of Dunbar, was a business caller here yesterday. Joseph Storer of Liberty, was calling on friends here yesterday. H. Phori was transacting business in Pittsburgh yesterday. Moses Clark of Uniontown was circulating among the voters of this place yesterday. P. G. Outwater of Liberty was a business caller here yesterday. Mrs. W. C. Shelby has returned home after a very pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McCall at Dunbar. James Bentley of Liberty, was transacting business here yesterday.

Expert Piano Tuning.

All persons wishing their pianos tuned by a man of 19 years experience call on J. E. Mason at Wallace Furniture Company, or phone on the Tri-State.

ROCKWOOD.

ROCKWOOD, Sept. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rickard left yesterday for an overland trip from Rockwood to Blair, Pa., accompanied by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rickard of Blair. The party will spend several days at the latter's home. The following is a complete list of the citizens who want to become councilmen in the borough of Rockwood: Republican—J. H. Barron, A. J. Growall, J. H. Leighty, James D. Moyle, J. P. Growall and Preston Schrock. Rev. H. J. Hummel of the United Brethren church, left the first of the week for Huntington, Pa., where he will attend the annual conference which is in session. Rev. Hummel, it is believed by many, does not expect to return to the Rockwood charge. The work on the new United Brethren church is rapidly progressing under the management of Chief Carpenter Norman S. Baker. The frame work is about complete, and the brick layers have already begun on the brick work.

HAVE YOU PILES?

Then Hem-Roid Is What You Want—A Guaranteed Internal Remedy.

Here is a physician's remedy, in sugar-coated tablets taken inwardly, that cures all forms of piles and excruciating operations as well as the common odious treatments it attacks the very cause—had circulation. This remedy is Dr. Leonard's HEM-ROID, sold by A. A. Clarke, Connellsville, and all druggists. $1 for 21 days' medicine, and satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. Leonard Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y., Prop. Write for booklet.

Parade This Evening.

A large crowd from the Scottsdale churches will leave here at 7 o'clock on the West Penn cars this evening for Greensburg to take part in the parade that closes the annual convention of the Westmoreland County Sunday School Association.

Patronize those who advertise.

We Give Away Absolutely Free of Cost

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English, or Medicine Simplified, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, a book of 1008 large pages and over 700 illustrations, in strong paper covers, to any one sending 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, or, in French Cloth binding for 31 stamps. Over 680,000 copies of this complete Family Doctor Book were sold in cloth binding at regular price of $1.50. Afterwards, one and a half million copies were given away as above. A new, up-to-date revised edition is now ready for mailing. Better send NOW, before all are gone. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

THE ONE REMEDY for women's peculiar ailments good enough that its makers are not afraid to print on its outside wrapper its every ingredient. No Secrets—No Deception. THE ONE REMEDY for women which contains no alcohol and no habit-forming drugs. Made from native medicinal forest roots of well established curative value.

Certain, Quick Cures for Men!

NOT A CENT CHARGED UNLESS CURED. QUICKEST CURES. LOWEST PRICES. I give you immediate benefits, cure you at one-half the expense of large city specialists, and in one half the time, or it costs you nothing.

Not a Dollar Need Be Paid Until Cured

I am proving to afflicted men that I am discharging cured patients every day who had been unsuccessfully treated for so long that they thought they could not be cured. I want men seeking treatment or those who have been under the care of other specialists for a long time without being cured to come to me and let me show them, as I have so many others, how "DIFFERENT" my treatment acts. I invite you to come to my offices for free consultation and examination. Write me if you cannot call. I want a chance to prove I can cure all afflicted, skeptical men who may hesitate to come to me because they have been humbugged by dishonest, unskilled doctors. I treat ALL CURABLE Diseases successfully. I have the best equipped offices in Pennsylvania. Remember, my treatment is "DIFFERENT," and COSTS YOU NOTHING unless you are willing, glad and satisfied to pay me. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

DR. BARNES 108 W. MAIN ST., CONNELLSVILLE. 2nd National Bank Bldg., Uniontown. IN CONNELLSVILLE EVERY MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY.

Connellsville's Mammoth New Department Store Nearing Completion.

In a Short While Our Doors Will Open to Admit the Public.

¶All Connellsville has been watching with keen interest the work on the Feldstein-Levine Co.'s Big New Department Store. When will we open? Is the question in everybody's mouth. The store is rapidly nearing completion and we shall announce the Opening Day in a short while.

¶When this new store opens it will be one of the largest department stores in Western Pennsylvania for neither pains nor cost have been spared to make it the finest and most modern retail emporium the people of Connellsville and vicinity have ever seen.

The new store will embrace more than 50 different departments covering pretty nearly everything in merchandise for home and personal use.

We will open with thousands of dollars worth of high-grade, reliable and fashionable personally selected in the style and industrial centers of the country by an expert familiar with the requirements and preferences of the people in this section.

Every facility for the comfort and convenience of patrons will be found spacious aisles, modern elevators, courteous salespeople, quick deliveries, etc., etc.

This will be a progressive store—ever striving to improve its service to the public. And reliability shall be its keynote.

Watch for Our Opening Announcement

FELDSTEIN-LEVINE COMPANY

Fayette County's Largest Store.

Dr. Holmes, Head of Movement to Reduce Mine Fatalities; Big Conference in October.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The great conference of miners at Pittsburgh during the last week of October to discuss methods of reducing the fatalities in mine accidents will, from all indications, be attended by no less than 30,000 men. President Taft will deliver an address. Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, Director of the United States Bureau of Mines, originated the idea of the conference and is now working on the plans to make the meeting one of pronounced value.

FOR THE WORKINGMAN SOUTH CONNELLSVILLE LOTS ARE BARGAINS.

Notable Stocks of Fall Goods

AT UNION SUPPLY COMPANY STORES.

After months of purchasing for our 63 large department stores, we are now able to state, the goods are all in. The lines are complete; every department spick and span, with the new fall styles. We are early in the field, yet the demand is already large for the new fall fixings, and the indications are, that the people are all eager to get their fall outfits early. We therefore suggest, if you want the choice of the lines, do not put off your visit too long. Of course, we will keep the stocks up, and have good lines during the entire season, but the choicest goods we will have, are now on display and selling.

THE NEW FALL STOCKS EXTEND TO THE GROCERY DEPARTMENTS.

Do not imagine we are not getting new goods here; it is a daily occurrence; there are carloads of goods arriving daily for our grocery departments to be distributed throughout our stores. In every line of groceries, we handle only the best. This includes coffee, tea, sugar, molasses, syrup, canned goods of all kinds, spices, beans, soap, etc., etc. In the line of flour, we have our special brand "Union." We challenge any fancy patent flour manufactured in the United States to excel it in quality. The enormous quantity we sell of it, is the best evidence we can produce. We will not attempt to enumerate further the many good lines which you have daily use for; they are sold in our grocery department. We urge you to give this department a trial.

UNION SUPPLY CO.

63 LARGE DEPARTMENT STORES,

Located in Fayette, Westmoreland & Allegheny Cos.

Pennsylvania R. R.

$1 from Connellsville

TO

PITTSBURG

AND RETURN

Next Sunday

Special Train

Leaves 8:26 A. M.

Returning, leaves Pittsburgh (Union Station) 7:15 P. M. East Liberty 7:25 P. M.

For fares and time from other stations, and stops of special train, consult hand bills or Ticket Agents.

You May Talk to One Man

But an advertisement in this paper talks to the whole community. Catch the Idea?

DO IT NOW

Subscribe for THIS PAPER

My Lady of the North

THE LOVE STORY OF A GRAY JACKET

By RANDALL PARRISH

Illustrations by Arthur T. Williamson

Copyright 1911 by A. C. McClurg & Co., Inc. Chicago, Ill.

It was Brennan. He had entered unobserved from the second parlor. "Frankly," I responded, "I hoped I might."

"Have you forgotten, then, our compact, or do you simply elect to ignore it?"

I saw the others exchange quick glances of amazement, but I answered coolly:

"The latter supposition is more nearly the truth, Major Brennan. I felt that after what we have just passed through together we could both afford to ignore the past, and consequently was hoping to escape without again encountering you."

"Indeed!" he exclaimed, sarcastically. "But I might have expected it. Gentlemen," and he turned toward the expectant group, "this man and I have a personal grievance of long standing unsettled. I have sought him for months in vain. When he came last night to my assistance, before I even consented to accept his services I insisted that no occurrence of the defense should prevent our meeting, if we both survived. Now he endeavors to speak away like a whipped cur. I demand satisfaction at his hands, and if it is refused I shall denounce him in both armies."

"I Brand You Here and Now as Sneak and Liar; Now Will You Fight?"

My cheeks burned, but before I could control myself sufficiently for answer, Moorehouse spoke.

"But, Brennan, see here," he said anxiously, "surely Captain Wayne has served you well. Is this trouble between you so serious that no amends are possible?"

"None, short of a personal meeting."

"Captain," and the perplexed federal commander turned toward me, "have you any word of explanation in this unfortunate affair?"

"Very little," I answered. "I am not even aware that I have done injury to Major Brennan, purposely or otherwise. He has not so much as honored me with information as to his cause of complaint. However, I care very little what it may be. As he has seen fit to denounce me before officers of my own corps, I should be extremely glad to meet him upon that ground alone; but after what we have just passed through together, I felt ready to blot out these past differences. Whatever they may have been, they are not liable to occur again, nor we to meet."

"They have occurred again since you have been in this house!" Brennan broke forth excitedly. "You are not a coward, but I brand you here and now as a sneak and liar! Now will you fight?"

We stood for a moment in utter silence, eyes to eyes, and I knew there was no help for it. These words, publicly spoken, left us no choice.

"I am at your service, Major Brennan," I returned sternly, "now or at any time. But I am an unfortunate hero in having no officer of my army present, and hence can name no second."

"Doubtless one of these gentlemen will consent to serve," he said, his face brightening at my rejoinder.

Some one hastily pushed a way to the front, and Lieutenant Caton, pale but determined, stood at my shoulder.

"It will afford me pleasure to act for Captain Wayne," he said clearly. "He will accept my services. Moreover," he added, with a significant glance at Brennan, "I do this as a friend, and with full confidence that I am upon the right side in the quarrel."

For a moment no one spoke, Brennan blushing to keep back the words he durst not utter. Then Caton turned to me.

"If you will retire to the library, Wayne, I will arrange this matter with whoever may represent Major Brennan."

With a slight formal bow to those present I quitted the room.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The Last Room of Gentlemen. I found the library deserted, and paced the floor for fully half an hour before Caton appeared. Stung as I had been by Brennan's harsh, uncalculated words, I yet shrank from the thought that I must now meet him in deadly combat. It was no fear of personal injury that troubled me; indeed I do not recall giving this the slightest consideration, for my mind was altogether concentrated upon what such a meeting must necessarily mean to Edith Brennan, and how it would affect our future relationship. This was the thought that stayed and mastered me. I had pledged myself to avoid him, and indeed had used every means possible to that end. The time was none too long, yet my mind once thoroughly settled as to my duty to her, became calm again, and confident in the outcome. When Caton entered, flushed and visibly excited from what had evidently proven an acrimonious controversy, I greeted him with a smile.

"You appear to have experienced difficulties in regard to details," I said coolly.

"There was much unnecessary talk," he admitted, "but matters have been at last arranged to the satisfaction of all concerned. You are to meet at once, at the rear of the big tobacco shed, a spot entirely removed from observation. I have been compelled to accept pistols as the weapons, as we have nothing else here at all suitable for the purpose—cavalry sabers being far too cumbersome. Lieutenant Starr chances to possess two derringers exactly alike, which we have mutually agreed upon. I hope this is satisfactory to you, Wayne?"

"I am not precisely an expert, but that does not greatly matter. Who acts for Brennan?"

"Captain Moorehouse, rather against his will, I think."

"Very well, Caton; I am perfectly satisfied, and am, indeed, greatly obliged to you; yet before we go out I desire to speak a word or two with the utmost frankness." I stood facing him, my hand resting lightly upon the writing table, my eyes reading his expressive face. "As my second I wish you to comprehend fully my actions, and the motives that inspire them. If they are in any way unsatisfactory to your mind you may feel at perfect liberty to withhold your services. I am now, and always have been, opposed to duelling; I believe it wrong in principle, and a travesty upon justice; but it is a custom of the South, a requirement among officers of our army, and after what has just occurred between Major Brennan and myself I cannot honorably refuse any longer to go out. Major Brennan has deliberately placed me in a position where I cannot avoid meeting him without losing all standing in my corps. I sought to escape, but was prevented by accident; now I simply yield to the inevitable. I feel confident you will not misconstrue these words; you surely know me too fully to do so. I shall face him on duty, in accordance with our arrangements, asking nothing upon my part, yielding him every satisfaction he can possibly desire—but I shall fire in the air."

He stared at me incredulously, his face a perfect picture of amazement. "But, Wayne," he stammered, "are you aware that Major Brennan is an expert with the pistol? Do you realize that he goes out deliberately intending to kill you?"

"I was not posted as to the first fact you mention, but have never entertained the slightest doubt as to the other. However, they do not in the least affect my decision. Yet I do not desire you to suppose that I am at all quizzical in this—there is a personal reason why I am perfectly willing to risk my life rather than injure Major Brennan."

His troubled eyes studied me intently, and then his face suddenly brightened with a new thought. "Wayne," he asked, placing his hand upon my arm familiarly, "is it Mrs. Brennan?"

For an instant I hesitated, but his manly, honest countenance reassured me. "Between us only, it is," I answered gravely, "but not the slightest blame attaches to her."

"I do not wholly understand," he said at last, "yet I do not doubt you may be perfectly right in your decision." He extended his hand impulsively. "I know you to be a good soldier and a true gentleman; I will stand by you, Wayne, but I pledge this and I take advantage of your hesitancy, and you fail (as God forbid!) I will face him myself; and when I do, there will be no firing in the air."

I do not remember that we spoke, save once, while we passed out through the orchard field where the big tobacco shed stood. Not until we turned the corner of the great ramshackle building, which in other and more prosperous days had been dedicated to the curing of the leaf, did we perceive any signs of the presence of our antagonists. They were standing upon the further side, directly opposite the door, and both bowed slightly as we approached. The Captain came toward us slowly.

"It is to be greatly regretted, gentlemen," he said, with ceremonious politeness, "that we have no surgeon with us. If, er, neither contestant has any advantage in this respect, Lieutenant Caton, may I ask if the arrangements are already completed have proven satisfactory to your satisfaction?"

"Entirely so."

"Then if you will kindly step this way a moment we will confer as to certain details."

Brennan was leaning in negligent attitude against the side of the building, his eyes fastened upon the ground, the blue smoke of a cigar curled lazily above his head. I glanced toward him, and then sought to amuse myself watching the queer antics of a gray squirrel on the fence rail beyond. I felt no desire for further thought, only an intense anxiety for them to hurry the preliminaries, and have the affair settled as speedily as possible. I was aroused by Moorehouse's rather nasal voice.

"Gentlemen, will you please take your positions. Major Brennan, you will stand three paces to the right of that smiling, facing directly south. Captain Wayne, kindly walk straight west from the shed door until you come opposite the Major's position."

I noted Brennan throw away the stump of his cigar, and then I walked slowly forward until I reached the point assigned me. My heart was beating fast now, for I fully realized the probabilities of the next few minutes, and felt little doubt that serious injury, if not death, was to be my portion. Yet my trained nerves did not fail me, and outwardly I appeared fully as cool and deliberate as my opponent. Years of constant exposure to peril in every form had yielded me a grim philosophy of fatalism that now stood me in most excellent stead. Indeed, I doubt not, had I chosen to put it to the test, my hand would have proven the stender of the two, for Brennan's face was flushed, and he plainly exhibited the intense animosity with which he confronted me.

How peculiar the mind often operates in such moments of exciting suspense. I recall remarking a very slight stoop in Brennan's shoulders which I had never perceived before. I remember wondering where Moorehouse had ever discovered a tailor to give so shocking a fit to his coat, and finally I grew almost interested in the two birds perched upon the limb of a tree opposite where I stood. I even smiled to myself over a just one of the young officers had made an hour before. Yet with it all I remained keenly observant and fully aware of each movement made by the others on the field. I saw Caton accept the derringer handed him and test it carefully, the long, slim, blue barrel looking deadly enough as he held it up between me and the sky. Then Moorehouse approached Brennan with his fellow in his grasp, and the Lieutenant crossed over, and stood beside me.

"Here is the gun, Wayne," he said, "and I sincerely hope you have changed your decision. There is no mercy in Brennan's eyes."

"So I notice," I answered, taking the derringer from him, and examining it with some curiosity, "but I shall do as I said, nevertheless. It is not any sentiment of mercy I feel which spurs him, but a duty that appeals to me even more strongly than hate."

"By Heaven, I wish it were otherwise."

"Who gives the word?" I questioned. "I do, are you ready?"

"Perfectly."

I held out my hand, and his fingers closed upon it with warm, friendly grip. The next moment Brennan and I stood, seemingly alone, facing each other, as motionless as two statues. His coat was buttoned to the throat, his cap pulled low over his eyes, his pistol hand hanging straight down at his side, his gaze never wavering from me. I knew he was coolly, deliberately measuring the distance between us with as deadly a purpose as any murderer. The almost painful stillness was broken by Caton, and I marked the tremor in his voice.

"Are you both ready, gentlemen?"

"Ready," I replied.

"Ready," said Brennan.

"The word will be one, two, three—fire!" with a slight pause after the three. A report from either pistol broke the fatal word is spoken I shall take personally. Be prepared now."

"Ready!" said the voice once more; and as I saw Brennan's arm slowly rise, I lifted mine also, and covered him, noting as I did so, almost in wonder, with what steadiness of nerve and wrist I held the slender gauge just beneath the visor of his cap. Deliberately, as though he dreaded the necessity, Caton counted:

"One; two; three—fire!"

My pistol exploded, the charge striking the limb above him, and I staggered backward, my hat torn from my head, a white line cut through my hair and a thin trickle of blood upon my temple. I saw Caton rushing toward me, his face filled with anxiety, and then Brennan hurled his yet smoking derringer into the dirt at his feet with an oath.

"Brennan Hurled His Yet Smoking Derringer at His Feet With an Oath."

"Damn it, Moorehouse!" he roared, fairly beside himself, "the charge was too heavy; it averted."

"Are you much hurt?" panted Caton. "Merely pricked the skin."

Then Brennan's angry voice rang out once more.

"I demand another shot," he insisted, loudly. "I demand it. I tell you, Moorehouse, this settles nothing, and I will not be balked just because you don't know enough to load a gun."

Caton wheeled upon him, his blue eyes blazing dangerously.

"You demand a second shot?" he cried indignantly. "Are you not aware, sir, that Captain Wayne fired in the air? It would be murder."

"Fired in the air!" he laughed, as if it was a most excellent joke. "Of course he did, but it was because my ball disconcerted his aim. I fired a second the first, but his derring was covering me."

Caton strode toward him, his face white with passion.

"Let him have it his way," I called after him, for now my own blood was up. "I shall not be guilty of such neglect again."

He did not heed me, perhaps he did not hear.

"Major Brennan," he said, facing him, his voice trembling with feeling. "I tell you Captain Wayne purposely shot in the air. He informed me before coming upon the field that he should do so. I positively refuse to permit him to face your fire again."

Brennan's face blazed; chagrin, anger, disappointment fairly infuriated him, and he seemed to lose all self-control. "This is some cowardly trick!" he roared, glaring about him as if seeking some one upon whom he could vent his wrath. "Damn it, I believe my pistol was fixed to over-shoot in order to save that fellow. I never missed such a shot before."

Moorehouse broke in upon his raving, so he stammered at those impetuous words as to stutter in his speech.

"Do you dare to insulate, Major Brennan?" he began, "that I have—"

he paused, his mouth wide open, staring toward the shed. Involuntarily he glanced in that direction also, wondering what he saw. There, in the open doorway, as in a frame, dressed almost entirely in white, her graceful figure and fair young face clearly defined against the dark background, stood Edith Brennan.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The Last Good-by. She exhibited no outward sign of agitation as she took her position, and stood advanced toward us. Daintily lifting her skirts to keep them from contact with the weeds under foot, her head poised proudly, her eyes a bit disdainful of it all, she paused before Caton.

"Lieutenant," she questioned in a clear tone which seemed to command an answer, "I have always found you an impartial friend. Will you kindly inform me as to the true meaning of all this?"

He hesitated, hardly knowing what to reply, but her imperious eyes were upon him—they insisted, and he stammered lamely:

"Two of the gentlemen, madam, were about to settle a slight disagreement by means of the code."

"Were about?" she echoed, scornful of all deceit. "Surely I heard shots as I came through the orchard?"

"One fire has been exchanged," he reluctantly admitted.

"And Captain Wayne has been wounded?"

I was not aware until that moment that she had even so much as noticed my presence.

"Very slightly, madam."

"His opponent escaped uninjured?"

Caton bowed, glanced uneasily toward me, and then blurted forth impulsively: "Captain Wayne fired in the air, madam."

"A most delightful situation, surely," she said clearly, and sarcastically. "One would almost suppose we had wholly reverted to barbarism, and that our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call them friends. No nobler, truer man ever died at arms. Over that duty over—scarcely are their dead comrades buried—when they forget every natural instinct of gratitude, of true manliness, and spring at each other's throat like two maddened beasts. I care not what the case may be—the act is shameful, and an insult to every woman of this household. Even as I came upon the field voices were clamoring for another shot, in spite of the fact that one man stood already wounded. War may be excusable, but this is not war. Our best civilization was but mock-work. Think of it, and the proud disdain in her face held us silent, "not six hours ago that house yonder was the scene of a desperate battle. Within its blood-stained rooms men fought and died, cheering in their agony like heroes of romance. I saw there two men battling shoulder to shoulder against a host of infuriated ruffians, seeking to protect helpless women. They were different uniforms, they followed different flags, by the fortune of war they were enemies, yet they could fight and die in defense of the weak. I thanked God upon my knees that I had been privileged to know such men and could call

VACCINATION LAW IN SCOTSDALE.

Board of Health Gets a Ruling From State Department.

SOME THOUGHT ACT REPEALED

Car Shops Lost Game to Keystones. D. G. Loucks' Barn Struck by Lightning—Daughter of Charles Tedrow Is Married—Other Notes.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Sept. 22.—While there have been a number of pupils come to the Scottdale schools with the idea on the part of their parents that these pupils do not need to bring vaccination certificates, the pupils and parents are alike mistaken. While the Connelville School Board seems to have been concerned with matter as to how it should be disposed of there is nothing of this uncertainty felt by the Scottdale Board of Education. They have not felt it was within their province, but that of the Board of Health.

The Board of Health has communicated with Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, State Commissioner of the State Department of Health at Harrisburg, and the latter gives the clear opinion that the new School Code has not repealed the vaccination law. In a letter to the Scottdale Board of Health, Dr. Dixon writes:

"The vaccination law has not been repealed by the School Code. The provisions of the Act of 1905 are still in force. Of course this law makes no requirement upon physicians, but makes it a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment for any school teacher or person in charge of a public school to admit any pupil unless they present a certificate of successful vaccination."

Superintendent Landis Tanager has communicated to the teachers the statement of Dr. Dixon and certificates of successful vaccination must be presented by all pupils.

The Shops Lost.
The Scottdale Keystones gave the Everen shops a real debuting at the shops grounds last evening by the score of 9 to 2. The Shops team has been playing ball in a winning manner on their home grounds all season and they thought that the fast little tribe under "Louie" Eicher wouldn't have a look in with them, but Eicher's slummers turned the tables and made a showing out of the bunch from the car hospital. Brown was in the game for the Shops but didn't perform behind the bat. Tannehill with Palmis to receive the goods had the crack, fast home players at his mercy, notwithstanding that he had pitted against him "Big" Stevin, captain of the Flint club of the South Michigan League. The bigger part of Scottdale fandom will be centered upon the Keystones when they meet the Star Junction swatters again Saturday at Star Junction.

Struck by Lightning.
The barn of David H. Loucks, a farmer living west of town, was struck by lightning and narrowly escaped being destroyed, along with the big silo which stands beside it and which was unroofed during a previous storm. The lightning tore two or three rafters out of the barn, passed down through a mow and out along the foundation. Mr. Loucks was in the house and ran to the barn, when the latter was struck, finding a strong smell of fire in the place. He felt certain that it was going to take fire, but this did not happen. Two thunder storms marked yesterday here, neither of them being very great ones.

Millinery Opening.
Raynor's Opening Display of Fall Millinery will be Saturday, Sept. 23. We cordially invite our patrons and friends to come and inspect the styles and prices.

Tedrow-Japson Marriage.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Tedrow announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence Helen, to Albert L. Japson of Steubenville, O., on Wednesday. The young couple will be at home to their friends at Mannington, W. V., after October 1.

Lot Sale Tomorrow.
The second lot sale at North Scottdale takes place tomorrow beginning at 10 o'clock. There will be a free lot, a free band concert, and free lunch at noon. North Scottdale is right on the West Penn.

Will Resume Business.
The Brown Millinery Company of Scottdale will resume business Saturday, September 24, in the room they formerly occupied in the Overholt building.

Away to College.
Miss Lela Muir, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Muir, has gone to the Woman's College, Funderick, Md.

A Good Habit.
A GOOD habit is as much to be desired as a bad habit is to be avoided. Cultivate the habit of saving a part of all the money that you receive. It is a habit that will grow, and it will prove of incalculable value to you throughout all your life. This bank invites your savings account. Deposits of one dollar or more accepted and interest paid on the money at the rate of 1% per annum. The Citizens National Bank, 125 Pittsburg street.

Read The Daily Courier every day.

Suits, Dresses, Furs, Waists---for Women and Apparel for Men

Each item has its own story to tell---quality is read in the materials and fashioning; and economy, in the pricing. Here's a style exhibit to educate you in what to pay as well as what to wear.

The Wright-Metzler Company

Madam, We Take It for Granted You Don't Really Know What Sort of a Suit You Want for Fall and Winter

Perhaps you've been the rounds and tired yourself with looking at a sameness that disheartened you. Stop in here first, the next time you go out. Our selection is so wide in its scope, yet so carefully chosen that the combined efforts of all the stores in Connelville couldn't make the diversified showing that will be brought before you here.

$15 to $100 is the Range

and it might be that our fancy street suit of navy cheviot, tastefully trimmed

Then our $19.75 special in fancy or tailored models; our $25 tailored models, the $30, $35, $40 and $50 groups will all pass, in procession before you.

$100 is the price of an American made adaptation of a French suit, in velvet by an over the sea designer.

Here's a point. You'll find suits here, one of a kind, that you'll not meet on any one else in a day's journey and the prices are right

To the minds of all wise folks this "Coolish" weather spells

B-L-A-N-K-E-T-S

We are ready with the right kind.

EDITORIAL

These are days when the people of Connelville and her territory are in the thick of their preparations for Fall and Winter---days when they need much---days when they look to the Wright-Metzler store for great service.

People came to our opening of Fall fashions, they saw and they marveled, because such merchandise as we showed had never been equalled in this city nor will it be, the merchandise or the prices.

And so we must every day keep filling up, keep filling up, FILLING UP, the store with new goods, new goods, NEW GOODS---and better goods.

These days we are on our mettle, must make good, and better than that.

Days when we must ungarble our whole strength, let loose our whole enthusiasm.

For serving the people who look to us for service is something worth while to do.

We Believe the Beauty of These Furs Would Create Buyers Even If the Knowledge That Their Prices Are Just About Wholesale

The purchase of the raw skins a long time ago; the delay in having them made up until the styles had been set; the recent trade conditions that sent fur prices skyward---all in all, we could make an interesting story---if we could ask that much of your time.

The pieces in black are Leipsic dyed---and Leipsic dye to furs bears the same relation as Oxyr does to hostility.

At $72.50 is a skunk set of selected skins. Large muff and heavy shawl. A duplicate would cost in the neighborhood of $150.

At $100 a black Lynx set you would pay fully $75 more for somewhere else, and it wouldn't be too much at that.

$47.50 buys a beautifully matched raccoon set and it's nearly half current prices.

$65 for the smartest set of Russian fox. It would bring $115 in the market.

Another Fox set is $50, and at $50 is a set of brown fox. At just half that price ($25), one set black fox and one set natural fox.

At $100 a perfectly natural set of Hudson Bay Mink; and one equally as handsome, but a trifle smaller at $90.

Separate Black Fox Muffs at $35. (Add three fourths more to these prices for their real value.) Black Fox Shawls $10 to $40.

Furs of various sorts to sell at prices lower than these have been shipped from their rendezvous and will go in stock within a few days.

Women's Section---Second Floor. W-M Co.

Saturday at 9 A. M. Sale of 1,000 Books of Popular Fiction 50c

Publishers have been active this summer rounding up books of expired copyright. So keenly have they worked that in this special sale one will find popular reading which sold at $1.25, $1.40 and $1.50 up to August 15, 1911, for 50c. All are printed on good paper with new, easily read type. The bindings are in color and handsome enough to grace any library.

Arms and the Woman---Harold McGrath. At the Time Appointed---Barbour. The Black Bag---L. J. Vance. The Blazed Trail---S. E. White. Breakers Ahead---A. M. Barbour. The Call of the Wild---London. The Castaway---Halle E. Rivers. Circular Staircase---M. R. Rhinehart. The Climax---G. C. Jenks. The Cost---David Graham Phillips. The Crisla---Winston Churchill. The Flying Line---Robert W. Chambers. A Fool There Was---P. Emerson Brown. Freckles---Gene Patton Porter. The Gambler---Katherine C. Thurston. In the Bishop's Carriage---Nicholson. Hearts and Masks; Half a Rogue; The Goose Girl---Harold McGrath; Light Fingers---D. G. Phillips. A Million a Minute---Hudson Douglas. The Post Girl---Ed. C. Booth. The Shuttle---F. H. Burnett. Satan Sanderson---H. E. Rivers. The Rivermen---Stewart, L. White. The Right Princess---C. L. Burdham. The Spenders---H. L. Wilson.

Saturday at 9 A. M. Sale of Ribbons at 15c and 20c Yard

A sale of ribbons. What time could be better when every little miss wants hair ribbon? And big miss wants a sash ribbon. And still bigger misses and matrons want ribbon for trimming. Come early to get the widest choice---and buy enough to last until another sale. That last statement might refer to a long period---we do not know when ribbons equally as good may be sold at these prices.

Lot One---Plain and fancy Ribbons 4 to 5 inches wide, worth to 15c 25c yard, at 15c

Lot Two---Plain and fancy, 5 in. wide, worth to 35c yard, at 20c

Early in the morning, when a chill is in the air, does it remind you that it's

"Time to Put 'Em On"
All sorts of Underwear for everybody

Women's Dresses in Styles Eloquent of Paris--$35 to $50

They are not imported, but superior American adaptations of famous models and in the original cloths. Gowns for

Afternoons Receptions Dinners Evening Functions

In soft, clinging crepe meteor, satin sumah, coline and net. Colors---any that for evening or day wear.

At $35---A party dress of lavender crepe meteor. Fashioned low neck and short sleeves with dancing length skirt. Devoid of trimming except for new shirred effect at foot, which is carried out in the waist.

At $37.50---An exquisite street dress of wool back satin in a rich brown tone. Thin bands of Kelly green is the chief embellishment, while cream point duchesse lace is used for the yoke and revers.

At $38.50---Dolline street dress in Copenhagen. Shadow net yoke and drop sleeve. Black is effectively used in trimming and wide bands of multicolored silk embroidery decorate sleeves and neck.

At $50---Dinner gown. Black jetted net over sumah silk. Fish tail train of black velvet. Mod fitted kimono sleeves and low neck. Finished with a heavy braided girdle with ribbon tassels. Other dresses, simple yet as thoroughly made, at $12.50 to $25.00 for Silk.

$15.00 to $29.75 for Wool.

Men, You Should Read This!

New Shoes

For Women---Smiling new shoes of every description brighten up the tables in the shoe store today. Very fashionable shoes in the latest mode, some of them are---and there are broad and butter shoes, too, and all that fashion and common sense permit in between Women's Suede Shoes $3.50 to $4.00. Tan Shoes $3.50.

25c to 50c cheaper than elsewhere because you don't pay a portion of the advertising as on some lines

Wright-Metzler Men's Shoes

So named because of the excellence of leather, workmanship and style. The best shoes that we know of at---$2.50 to $5.00.

The man who wants dignified, distinctive and correct clothes of assured style and guaranteed fabric---the right colors without bordering on foolish, freaking tones---cloth that hasn't an inch of cotton in a mile of it---can do as well here as anywhere else. If he's looking to the economy side---he can do better here than anywhere else---and we'll offer just one single proof---our $17.50 Wright-Metzler Special. A dozen or so styles and all the proper colors---properly tailored into all sizes. These suits are rated at $22.50, but they're $17.50---made so of a set design and not just a happening.

Other suits are $15, $20, $22.50, $25, $30 and $35. Special emphasis is laid on the $25 line.

It is always better to see the collection while it is newish.

Those same prices are applied to overcoats.

BOYS' CLOTHING

In Best of Fall Styles.

The Wright-Metzler Boy's Store is growing. Judge by the splendid stocks for Fall. See the growth in the finer fabrics---finer, finer than last years, fine as that was, in the better tailoring.

Better clothing at no higher prices.

Of rare appeal to mothers of boys

A finer style, snappier---the tailor's tribute to boyish pride, $2.50 to $13.50.

STETSON HATS

For Men $3.50

The best made hat in America. The easiest fitting, the best color, the noblest shapes. Soft and stiff models.

If you fancy those rough surface knock-about sorts that seem to suit any face

Or if it's a dressy, dandy style for occasional wear, it's here with the others

Hats Start at $2.00

NEW TROUSERS

are being taken from their boxes.

New Caps

for men and boys are in stock

The Campus 50c

was sold out once but a "wire" brought new ones in a jiffy. For boys 2 years to 8 years old.

LUGGAGE

New sorts in Cases, Bags and Trunks. Stocks recently replenished

